The Hatfield Avengers seek to protect the 2018 Reunion

Our intel is that the dastardly villain Thanos McCoy has discovered the Hatfields' secret headquarters at Jenny Wiley State Park! His evil plan is to gather all the Infinity Stones in one place and use them to book all the rooms from now until eternity! To defeat his nefarious scheme, the Hatfields will need to show up in record numbers August 2-5 for the 33rd Jeff and Polly Hatfield Reunion.

On Thursday evening at 7:00 PM, the family will start gathering and will have an initial meeting to share strategies to defeat Thanos McCoy throughout the weekend and practice our games of skill. Thursday is also a good time to showcase your family's Super Heroes with your door decorations.

Friday morning will be the opportunity to rest and relax at the pool, hike the trails, or play golf before the battle with Thanos McCoy to save the Reunion.

At 4:00 PM, the battle begins with Hulk's Horseshoe Hurl at the Dewey Lake Dam. At Jeff and Polly's Marvel-ous Picnic, which starts at 5:30 PM, the family will divide into their Battle Squads. All of the week's activities will determine which Battle Squad is the most successful in defending the Reunion from Thanos McCoy.

At the picnic, we will try to keep the Infinity Stones away from Thanos McCoy by competing in the Infinity Stone Balloon Toss. Then, to raise the money we need to keep fighting the good fight, we'll all participate in Tony Stark's Billionaire Auction.

On Saturday morning, the heroic Hatfields will gather for the 7-Iron-Man Golf Tournament, which is open to family members of every skill level. It is a terrific way to spend quality time with your family members, while protecting the Reunion from Thanos.

The afternoon will feature Namor's Undersea Games by the pool and Captain America's Historic Preservation Session. Captain America is most interested in hearing about living with the grandchildren of Jeff and Polly (e.g., Josephine, Teddy, Arnold, Racine, Robert, Paul, Phyllis, and Greta) and the babysitting techniques used by Roger Blackburn to strike terror into the hearts of a whole generation.

Following dinner and our business meeting at 6:00, it will all culminate in the ultimate showdown at Avengers Lodge! The final fate of the Hatfield Family Reunion will rest upon your keen intellect during Thor's Lightning Trivia and your bravery during the Avengers Infinity Games! Can the Hatfield Avengers overcome Thanos McCoy? To be continued!

Phyllis Blackburn and her family will host our picnic. Hamburgers and hot dogs will be provided, but please bring your own table service, drinks, and any side dish to share.

It was a celebration of HATFIELD FAMILY TRADITIONS at the 2017 Hatfield Reunion

Jeff and Tom Hatfield took us back to our roots as we enjoyed popular family games and activities in the newly renovated Jenny Wiley Lodge in Prestonsburg. The 2017 Jeff and Polly Hatfield Reunion started on August 3, when family members gathered in the evening at the Jenny Wiley Pool for movies and a float party. The evening allowed cousins to catch up around the pool.

Friday morning a stalwart group did the Hatfield and McCoy Feud Tour, Part II, hosted by Sheryle Sullivan, Nina Rose Hatfield, and Joy Kay Hatfield. The group explored the geographic and cultural influences on decisions made by William Anderson "Devil Anse" Hatfield during the Fued. The group went to the Anderson Hatfield Memorial Cemetery at McCarr, Kentucky, the final resting place of two important persons to the Feud. Ephraim Hatfield, born about 1765, is the progenitor of the Hatfields in the Tug River Valley, including the Hatfield participants in the Feud. Anderson Hatfield presided over the dispute between Randall McCoy and Floyd Hatfield over the ownership of a hog and he was a witness to other Feud events, including the 1882 Election Day fight. The tour then went to Sarah Ann, West Virginia, where participants climbed the hill to where William Anderson "Devil Anse" Hatfield, the Hatfield feudists leader, is buried. In addition, Devil Anse's wife, Levicey Chafin, and eight of his children, including Johnson "Johnse," are buried there. The group reviewed some of the descriptions of Devil Anse and Levicey written by TC Crawford, who did the only known interview of Devil Anse and Levicey at their home.

The tour made its final stop at the Ellison Hatfield Cemetery in Matewan, West Virginia. Ellison, trying to stop a fight, was mortally wounded in 1882 by the three sons of Randall McCoy, leading to conflict between the two families.

Friday afternoon on the annual Horseshoe Tournament was hosted by Paris Blackburn, Paul Morris, and Matt Heiden at the Dewey Lake Dam. After surviving multiple rounds, the "young" team picnic has become a family favorite as a result of the hard work done by Phyllis and her crew. Homemade dishes from family members augment the hamburgers and hot dogs to create a great atmosphere for the family to gather.

Roger Blackburn and Tom Hatfield coaxed a record-breaking $3900 from Reunion participants in the annual auction that supports Reunion activities. The largest single item was a bit of family history as Joy Kay Hatfield contributed a set of drawings done by TC Hatfield of the Guy and Lilly Scott Hatfield home. The drawings sold for $1,400--a record for a single item. William Jefferson Hatfield (of Jeff and Polly) helped Guy log the timber, while both Estil and TC Hatfield worked on the construction of the house. Other items included Phyllis Blackburn's stack cakes, an afagan and pillow done by Jeanne Hatfield, sugar cookies by Janet Bowe, a US flag flown in honor of the Reunion donated by Margaret Rader, and an assortment of homemade goodies contributed by family members.

After the Awesome Auction, the family retreated back to the Jenny Wiley pool for an after-party.

Early Saturday morning the Hatfield golfers were on the course for the 26th Bill Morris Golf Tournament. As always, the teams were very competitive in one of many fun events at the Reunion. In 2017, Cory Craig led his team with Nina Rose Hatfield, Gary Craig, and Paris Blackburn to victory. Tyler Wright, the captain of the 2015 and 2016 winning teams, led Samuel Howard, Asher Bowe, and Matt Heiden to a second-place finish. Nina Rose had a good day with the longest women's drive and the longest putt, while Samuel Howard won the longest men's drive and Joe Bowe was closest to the pin.

The Jeff and Polly Historic Preservation session focused on parenting by Jeff and Polly's grandchildren and how it differed from the parenting by Jeff and Polly's children. A multi-generational group attended, including Bev Hatfield, Janet Bowe, Marlene and Bentley Adams, Margaret Rader, Paul Morris, Jeanne Hatfield, Nina Rose Hatfield, Tom Hatfield, Sheryle Sullivan, and Isaiah Covington (pictured below). A consistent theme was one of high expectations by Jeff and Polly's grandchildren for their own children. Several, including Janet and Marlene, pointed out that there was no instruction manual coming with the children, so they learned as they went. The children universally alleged that the younger children were treated less sternly than the older children.

On Saturday night Jeff and Tom introduced some old and new games for the Reunion. Generational teams completed assigned tasks. For example, they unrolled

"presents" (see Paris Blackburn on p. 6), passed an orange without using hands, and had a very competitive game of musical chairs, which was won by Marlene Adams edging out Sidney Heiden.

New family members and friends attend their 1st Reunion

Cousins, Griffin Clyde Wright (son of Tyler and Kate Wright) and Eva Mae Howard (daughter of Samuel and Shelby Howard), meet at their first Hatfield Reunion picnic. Lindsey is working in marketing and Ben is a purchasing manager for ARVEST Bank. Noah, 4, is playing itty-bitty soccer, basketball, and T-ball. Owen, 2, tries to do what Noah is doing. Mark and Sherri are busy with their jobs and spend a lot of time at the lake with family and friends. They enjoy spending time with Noah and Owen--if they can pull them away from Joe and Polly. Polly cooks a dinner once a week so the entire family can get together.

Whodunnit?

Jeanne Hatfield, Janet Bowe, and Bev Hatfield attended a '50s-themed murder mystery night in New Albany, Ohio. They were dressed for the part, but did one of them hold the key clue?

Candy and Jim

Candy Caudill [Arlene Huffman] had her family together to celebrate her birthday in Lexington, Kentucky. Candy has retired from real estate sales and closed the agency. Jim continues to do real estate appraisals while working from home. (L-R, Front) Ann Marie Spears, Candy, family friend Stephanie Olney, Jaime and Bo Wientjes; (Back) Jamie and Clay Spears, Jim, and Steven Trivette. They have enjoyed their annual family vacation in Destin, Florida (inset).

Joy Kay and Griffin Clyde

For Joy Kay Hatfield it has been the year of the children. She spent the past year documenting the adventures that she and Griffin Clyde Wright had together, culminating in a photo book. In addition, she has spent time in Florida with Spencer Wright and she helped Trey and Anna Wright move into their new home in Tennessee.

Michelle, Will, Mitch [Steve Hatfield] and Owen Hatfield enjoy spending time with Bev Hatfield both in Kentucky and, as pictured above, in Florida.
