Reunion
The real story

Cruisin' at the 2008 Hatfield Reunion

The descendants of William Jefferson and Polly Margaret Runyon Hatfield cruised into port at the Jenny Wiley State Park on July 31, 2008, for the 23th Hatfield Reunion. Co-Captains Jackie Hatfield and Shelley Rader led the family in a weekend that was packed with activity, while allowing family members to visit and relax.

Guests arriving for the cruise on SS Hatfield were greeted by the ship captains. Many family members gathered Thursday on the Lanai Deck (the Jenny Wiley Pool) for a family pot luck to celebrate the opening of the Reunion. Following golf and playing in the pool on Friday morning, attention centered on the Odyssey Deck where Phyllis Blackburn, Teresa Craig, Sharon Blackburn, and Kim Blackburn hosted another splendid picnic. The picnic, while one of the most labor intensive efforts of the entire Reunion, is always a big hit and the family appreciates Phyllis and her family for putting it together each year.

The Annual Horseshoe Tournament was won by Kelly and Cory Craig after close matches. The auction was a lively affair and the many

Get on your mark...get set for the 24th Hatfield Reunion

Janet Bowe and Joy Kay Hatfield, co-chairs for the 2009 Hatfield Reunion, have planning underway for an exciting 24th trek to Jenny Wiley State Park in Prestonsburg, Kentucky. The family will gather from July 30 to August 2, 2009.

Jackie Hatfield and Mitch Hatfield are constructing a special Hatfields' Amazing RACE that will thrill and chill Jeff and Polly's descendants. The race will include puzzles and physical feats to challenge the entire family. In addition, it will incorporate popular Reunion events like the Horseshoe Tournament and the Twentieth Annual Bill Morris Memorial Golf Tournament. Jackie and Mitch promise that everyone will enjoy the journey.

In the spirit of trying some new things, Janet and Joy Kay are announcing some changes to our regular format for the picnic. Hot dogs will be provided, but you are requested to please and Katherine Scott joined Opal and Clyde with a trip to the altar.

Opal, who has been very active in local civic affairs and never missed a Town Board meeting, celebrated with many friends and family members. The Georgetown Town Board declared January 7 to be "Opal Hatfield Day" in her honor. They presented her with a certificate at the Georgetown party.

The Indian Hill Living magazine in Cincinnati did a cover story about Opal and ran a picture of her holding her book, Love, Opal. Opal told the reporter, Moira Grainger, her advice to the younger generation was to: "Start your education early...and keep it up. Education is a precious gift." That is not surprising advice when one considers that Opal, the first one in her family to complete her college education, taught for forty-three years in Kentucky and Indiana.

Opal has also been a stalwart supporter of the Hatfield Reunion and has attended each one. Since last year's Reunion, Opal has been spending time in both Cincinnati, Ohio, and Florida.

Opal has been a member of the Jeff and Polly Hatfield family since her marriage to Teddy Clyde Hatfield Sr. on May 25, 1936. They were a part of the exodus of children from Jeff and Polly's household in 1935-36. During that period, Melda and Orville Morris, Guy and Lilly Hatfield, Bob and Virginia Hatfield, Jeanette and Anthony Smith, and Dovel

On Saturday morning the Nineteenth Annual Bill Morris Memorial Golf Tournament was played. The best ball format allows all players at all skill levels to participate. Roger Blackburn Jr. led his team of Tyler Wright, Paul Morris, and to a third place finish. Ryan Noonan had the longest drive for the men and Nina Rose Hatfield had the longest drive for the women. Cory Craig made the longest putt and Tyler Wright had the drive that was closest to the pin.

Saturday afternoon brought a rousing History Preservation Session as the cousins gathered and talked about growing up on Blackberry and Belfry. Most of the stories revolved around going to Belfry High School and then on to college. As always, laughter abounded as Opal Hatfield, Phyllis Blackburn, Ted Hatfield, Margaret a plaque thanking her for her support of the Reunion.

The pool was the focus of events on Saturday afternoon and Saturday evening starting with a huge sub for dinner. Family members visited and exhausted themselves with water games. Each year for the last several years, the youngsters have opened a piñata filled with candy.

Joe and Polly Breeze and Barbara Howard fill their plates at the Picnic.

2008 Reunion Memories

There was particular gusto as each took a turn trying to break the piñata until, at last, Emily Hatfield opened it and all the candy spilled out. Each child recovered a great bounty.

To cap off the evening, Trey and Spencer Wright launched a small hot air balloon from pool-side. The balloon floated off over Jenny Wiley to commemorate the 23rd Reunion.

HATFIELD HOT DATES

Tip & Joy Kay

Reed Charles "Tip" Davidson and Joy Kay Hatfield were married on March 7 in Columbus, Ohio. Reed has been called "Tip" since he was a small child, making it easy for Opal Hatfield to remember the name of her sons-in-laws, but it makes for lots of confusion in conversation. Opal attended the wedding and made a splash on the heels of celebrating her 100th birthday.

Billy Neel is engaged to a beautiful woman he knew from high school, Crystal Stilly.

Charlotte & Kelly

Kelly Craig and Charlotte Partrick are engaged to be married on September 19 in Statesville, NC. Charlotte, who is a post-surgical nurse at the Carolina Medical Center, and Kelly, who is an Account Manager for Teksystems, met while attending UNC-Charlotte.

Annie & Joe

Joe Bowe provided last-minute instructions to daughter, Annie, as she was ready to leave for the prom. Annie obviously took each word to heart. She had a successful year on the cross country team and was team captain for the track team. Both teams competed at the regionals. Annie is recovering from leg surgery and is back to running. Now she is completing an internship with Columbus Speech and Hearing for her senior seminar project.

HELPING BACK HOME...

Devastation in Pike County

This scene in Belfry, Kentucky, is indicative of how bad the flooding has been this spring. Pike County is one of the counties determined by FEMA to be a disaster area, allowing some additional federal assistance. Not only were the early June floods bad, but subsequent rains caused additional flooding making clean-up really difficult. Sheryle Sullivan reports that:

There are five bridges gone on Blackberry Fork. The roads are broken off in some places to one lane. Up Forest Hills, the road is really bad. Four bridges are gone or damaged there. Belfry Floral, Rogers Funeral Home and Hatfield Funeral Home all had major damage. I don't know if they are putting Belfry Floral back in. Rogers and Hatfield's are holding their funeral services in area churches. They are working on Belfry Middle school and hope to have it ready before school starts. If not, the kids will be sent to different area schools.

The Southside Mall, which is managed by Sheryle, provided food for Brianna Sullivan and some of her middle school friends to run a kitchen. From their kitchen in the Belfry firehouse, they fed people for five days.

With all that in the background, Brianna attended the Belfry prom. In addition to her work with flood victims and the prom, Brianna became a member of Junior National Honor Society. Her Belfry Middle School varsity cheer squad won several competitions this year, including:

*Mountain Middle Champs
Pike County Champs
Smokey Mountain Spring Champs in Pigeon Forge
Kickin' KY Open in Lexington, where they received the only WOW award for the day.*

Brianna

FOR THE RECORD

Cory

Cory Lynn Craig graduated from The University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and School of Human Environmental Sciences on May 9 with a BS in forestry and a minor in business management. He is now a Wildlife Technician for The Department of Fish and Wildlife for the State of Kentucky and will be working at Carter Cave and Natural Bridge State Parks in Fleming County. While at the University of Kentucky, Cory played football for the Wildcats.

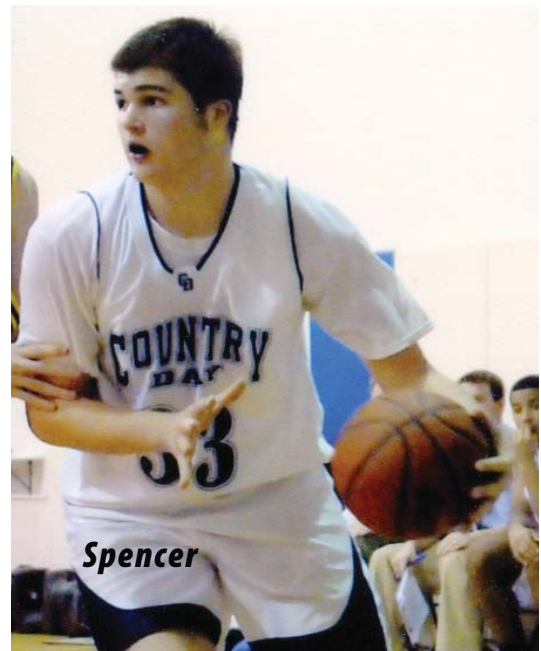

Sharon

Sharon Joyce Jacobs Blackburn, pictured with daughter, Katie, graduated from the University of Phoenix in November of 2008. She earned her degree with honors with a double major in business administration and business management. With a 4.0 GPA, Sharon has now completed half of her masters program in business management.

Clay

Clayton "Clay" Prichard Cooper graduated from Trinity Christian School of Fairfax, Virginia, on June 6. He graduated Cum Laude and was recognized as a Commended Student in the National Merit Scholarship Program. In the fall Clay plans to attend Virginia Tech in Blacksburg, Virginia, where he has been accepted in the Corps of Cadets and the engineering program.

Spencer

Spencer Andrew Hatfield Wright graduated from Cincinnati Country Day School on June 5. He finished his basketball season as Most Valuable Player for the year and was named All-Miami Valley Conference First Team selection as well as a member of the All-Southwest Ohio District 16 (Division IV) team. Spencer, who played twelve sports while at CCD, was awarded the Wright Award for Sportsmanship. Spencer will attend Centre College in Danville, Kentucky, in the fall where he will play both football and basketball.

Bill McCoy and Steve

Stephen K. Hatfield, right, owner of Hatfield Insurance Agency in Covington and Ewbank Insurance LLC in Warsaw has been selected by his peers as the 2009 Kentucky Professional Insurance Agent of the Year.

Hatfield was given the honor by Bill McCoy for his outstanding contributions to his community, the insurance industry, and to the Professional Insurance Agents of Kentucky.

Hatfield has been an agent in the insurance industry since 1979 and has always been active in the community, as well as the insurance industry. He has served on several agent advisory boards as well as held Board positions on many local, regional and state business associations, Chambers of Commerce, hospitals and charitable organizations. He has chaired many federal, state and local political campaigns. He is currently serving as treasurer of the Professional Insurance Agents of Kentucky PAC. Hatfield runs both family-owned Independent Insurance Agencies with his wife, Beverly, and their son, Mitch Hatfield.

Ashley

Ashley Nicole Johnson graduated from the sixth grade in Orleans, Indiana, after an exceptional year. She played basketball and volleyball for the school team and enjoyed both sports very much. Ashley received the "President's Award" and several other academic and sports awards. She got the "Serving" award for volleyball, "Best Mental Attitude," and "Best Free Throw Percentage" in basketball. Ashley also participated in a Gifted and Talented program by being selected to take the SAT as a sixth grader for an academic talent search, and she was on the All A Honor Roll. Needless to say, parents Suzanne and Brian Johnson, and grandparents, Marlene and Bentley Adams, are very proud of her success.

Sydney & Taylour

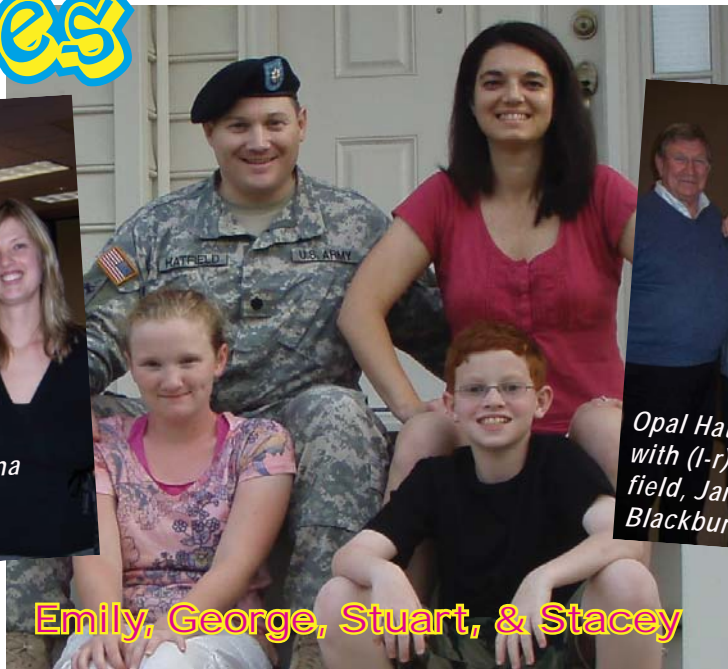

Sydney and Taylour Hone have recently moved to Huntsville, Alabama, from Richmond, Kentucky. Before leaving Kentucky both were recognized for their work. Sydney, who just finished the third grade, received a trophy for her Advanced Reading scores. Taylour, who graduated from elementary school to middle school, won a trophy for being on the Honor Roll all year long. Sydney and Taylour are vacationing in Hawaii.

Charly Neel, Billy Neel's daughter, will start eighth grade in the fall. She is involved in Beta Club and Drama.

Ventures

Steve Hatfield with friend, Anna Swisher, and daughter-in-law, Michelle Hatfield.

Emily, George, Stuart, & Stacey

Friends and family gathered in Covington, Kentucky, in January to welcome Stuart Hatfield back from his tour in Iraq. Stuart and his wife, Stacey, spent the Christmas holidays after being based in Germany for four years, including Stuart's deployment to Iraq. Stuart was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel on 01 March right before their return from Germany. They are now at Fort Monroe in Hampton, Virginia. Stuart is serving as a Combat Developer working on future weapons and equipment for Soldiers, everything a Soldier touches from uniforms to rifles to robots.

During Spring Break, Kentucky Congressman Geoff Davis (4th District) gave Emily and George a tour of the US House of Representatives. While there, he let George cast his vote on an active bill.

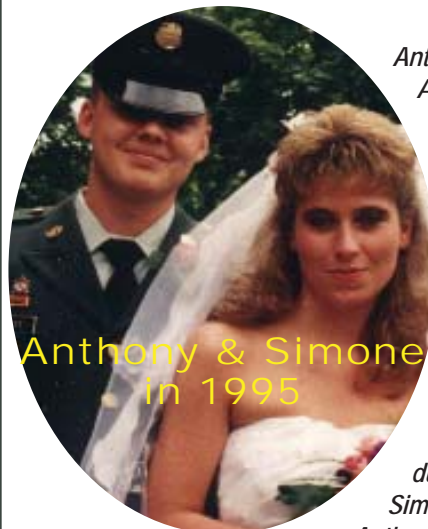

All are enjoying their summer near the beach and exploring the Hampton Roads area. In addition, Stuart, George, and Emily are taking Taekwando.

Ben completes basic

Ben Hatfield, left, enjoyed a visit from his father, Stephen Hatfield, when he completed basic training at Ft. Benning, Georgia, in June. Ben is going to Advanced Infantry Training for seven weeks at Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri. He will be trained to operate large troop transport vehicles. When he has completed his training, he will be stationed at the Indiana National Guard Armory at Shelbyville, Indiana, and will go to Vincennes University in Vincennes, Indiana.

Anthony returns to Iraq

Anthony & Simone in 1995

Anthony Scott is in the Air Force and is in Iraq for his second tour. His mother, Margie Scott, says he seems to be OK and he'll be coming home for a two-week break the first part of August. She and Larry are planning to meet him in Texas during that break. Simone and Skylar, Anthony's wife and son, have been in Kempner, Texas, since January.

Anthony's current address in Iraq is:
 SSG. Scott, Larry
 66th Trans. Co.
 COB ADDER
 APO AE 09331

Abbey Bowe was invited to take ACT as a seventh grader and scored in the top 1% nationally in the reading portion. She was selected to participate in the Duke Talent Identification Program and was invited to a special camp at Duke in May. As a result of her academic achievements, Abbey was inducted into the Junior Beta Club. In addition, Abbey was voted the outstanding delegate at Kentucky United Nations Association in 2008. She also attended the Kentucky

Youth Assembly where her proposed bill to provide adoptive parents with equal rights in family medical leave was passed by the youth assembly. Her state representative, Bob Damron, learned of this bill and it will be proposed to the Kentucky State Legislature in 2009. Abbey also represented her school in the Governor's Cup academic competition at both the district and regional levels. She was awarded first place in both the Language Arts and Arts & Humanities categories in the district competition. Abbey is also a member of the Lexington Catholic middle school cheerleading squad and the Mary Queen of the Holy Rosary (MQHR) volleyball team. Abbey also served on the MQHR student council.

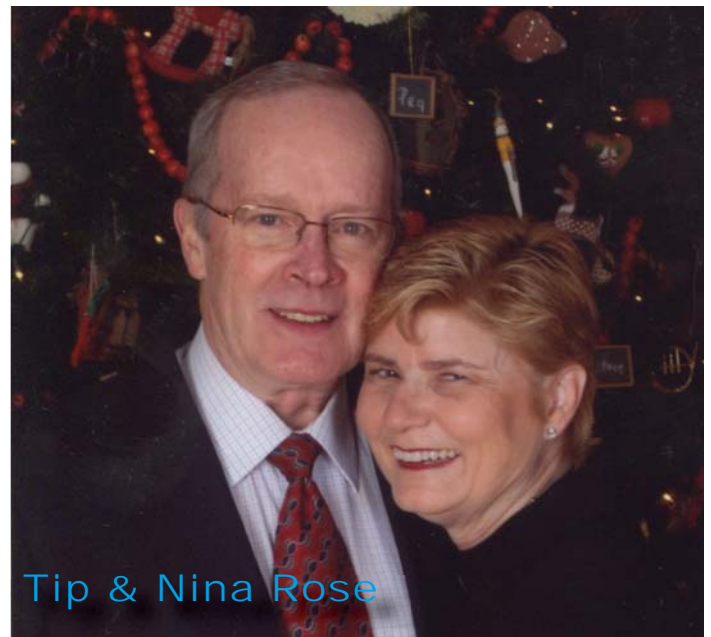

Well, here go the Hatfields again! Lynn and Quentin Hatfield have moved to a new house in Spring Hill, TN, so they can spend more time with grandson, Luke. As Quentin says, "Needless to say, we think Luke is beyond adorable and is a constant joy for us."

Dylan Johnson, pictured with his grandparents, Bentley and Marlene Adams, is finishing up his first season of baseball. He also played basketball and enjoys both sports. In addition, Dylan made straight A's this year in school. He is involved in cub scouts and will attend cub scout camp this summer.

Bentley and Marlene took care of Dylan and his sister, Ashley, while Bryan and Suzanne Johnson took a "KLOVE Music Cruise" to the Bahamas and West Palm Beach, Florida. In that twelve days southern Indiana had the biggest snow storm of the year, so Dylan and Ashley were out of school for a week. They spent that time sledding and playing cards. Bentley and Marlene intend to camp with the Johnsons in July and will take day trips with Mark Adams and his family.

W. Hord "Tip" Tipton and Nina Rose Hatfield made a left hand turn on their way home to Kentucky and ended up in Oldsmar, Florida. Their move was prompted by Tip becoming the Chief Executive Officer of (ISC)², an international organization that educates and certifies information technology security professionals. Nina Rose, who had spent thirty years with the Department of the Interior, retired on October 1 to follow the moving truck to Florida. Margaret Rader, Joy Kay Hatfield, and Tip Davidson all came to Florida to help unpack.

Young Ones and History

The Adams Family

Blackberry Tour

Mark and Dawn Adams and their children, Katie Beth, Riley, Alex, and Mark II, visited the Orville Morris Park on Blackberry in May. The trip gave the children some hands-on family history. They enjoyed the trip with Polly and Joe Breeze, Paul and Eleanor Morris, and grandparents, Bentley and Marlene Adams. In addition to the Orville Morris Park, named for their great-grandfather, Katie, Riley, Alex and Mark went to the Anderson Hatfield Cemetery, Matewan, Mudd Lick, and other places like the Morris Homeplace.

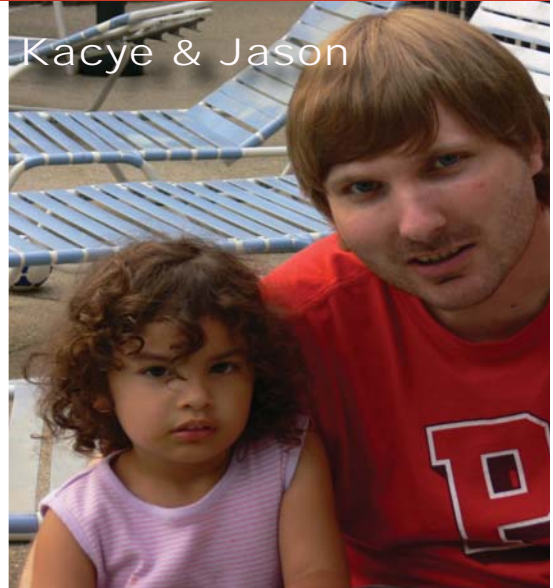

Jack & Bennett

Jack Caudill, son of Cassie and Steve Caudill, understands what the Reunion is all about. When told that Bennett Grace did not remember Jenny Wiley, Jack said, "Oh, Beni! It's the best place in the whole world! Our family is a legend. We have the 'uniquest' family. You can run around everywhere because everyone there loves you." As Janet Bowe, his grandmother said, it made her realize "how much this [Reunion] tradition means to me and my/our family. I know one little boy that knows who he is and where he comes from." Jack was also quick to point out to Janet what an honor it was to chair the Hatfield Reunion.

Give them a sense of heritage...bring your children to the Jeff and Polly Hatfield Reunion!

Kacye & Jason

Kacye, with her father, Jason Mays, has been a regular at the Hatfield Reunion as a way of connecting up with her Kentucky family. She starts Kindergarten this fall and is looking forward to that.

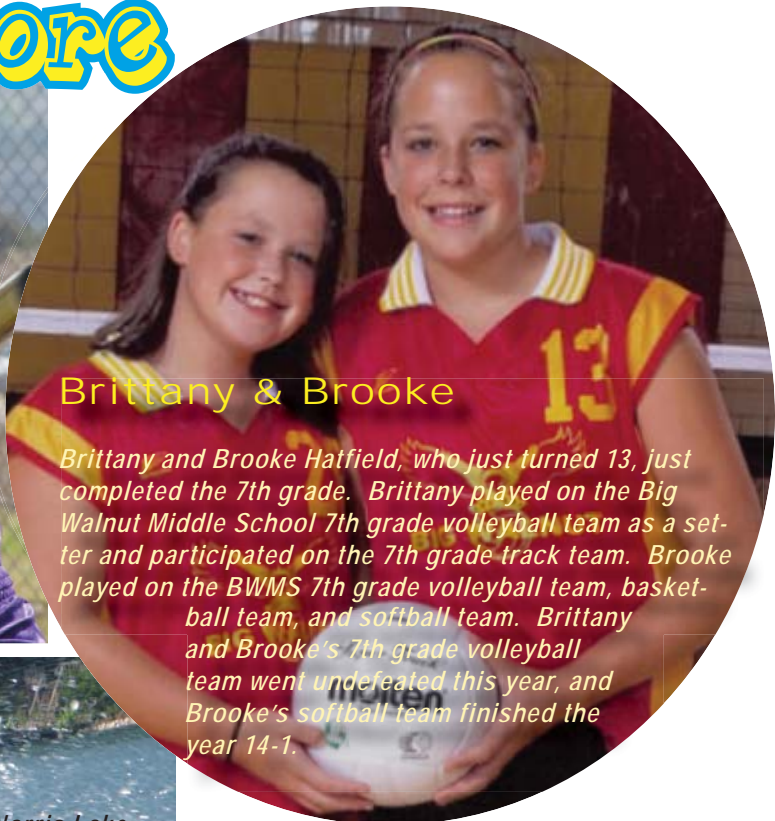

HATFIELDS SCORE

Chelsea

Chelsea Bowe completed her freshman year of college at Capital University in Columbus, Ohio. She loves college and had a very successful year academically as well as athletically. Chelsea saw significant playing time as the designated hitter for the Capital Crusader softball team. She has formed quite a bond with cousins Brooke and Brittany Hatfield after staying with them for three summers.

Brittany & Brooke

Brittany and Brooke Hatfield, who just turned 13, just completed the 7th grade. Brittany played on the Big Walnut Middle School 7th grade volleyball team as a setter and participated on the 7th grade track team. Brooke played on the BWMS 7th grade volleyball team, basketball team, and softball team. Brittany and Brooke's 7th grade volleyball team went undefeated this year, and Brooke's softball team finished the year 14-1.

Joe

Joe Bowe shows his form at Norris Lake in Tennessee, where he and Karen took Chelsea, Annie, Ryan and their friends to ski. Joe has had a big year culminating in a promotion to Vice President of Logistics for Pier 1 Imports. Everyone is proud of the accomplishments leading to being named to this position. The family will be moving to the Ft. Worth, Texas, area, although the timing is still a bit up in the air.

Like Father...like son

Ryan

Ryan Bowe, a sophomore in the fall, is excited to play football for the New Albany Eagles. He has been busy with conditioning for the team, as well as playing catcher for the Eagle summer baseball team. He greatest love, however, is wakeboarding and waterskiing and he will go every chance he gets.

Samuel & Esther

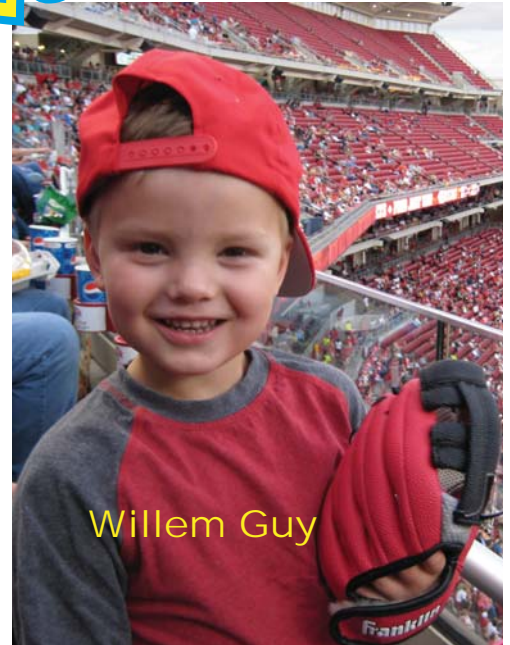

Samuel Howard and his Elliott County, Kentucky, High School Team placed 8th in the National Archery in the Schools Program national competition in May, remarkable in that this is only the second year that Elliott County has competed. Samuel placed sixth nationally among high school males. Esther has, on occasion, been brought up from her elementary team to compete on the high school team. She placed in the top 60 shooters nationally for elementary girls.

HATFIELDS ON THE GO

Mitch, Michelle, & Willem

Wil Hatfield took his parents, Mitch and Michelle, and his grandfather, Steve Hatfield, to see the Cincinnati Reds play at the Great American Ball Park. Thanks to Willem, everyone had a great time.

Willem Guy

Re-elect

Margaret H. Rader

to the McKee City Council

- Vote for integrity, experience, and common sense
- Vote for vision and progress

Margaret Rader was successfully re-elected to her third term on the McKee, Kentucky, City Council. Margaret has put a lot of effort into assuring that the city complies with State and local requirements.

Jeff

Jeff Hatfield continues to coach the Big Walnut Varsity Softball Team, while Shellie coached the Junior Olympic Volleyball team this past winter.

Jeff, Shellie, Brittany, and Brooke took a week's vacation in June to Lake Cumberland. They were joined by Roger Blackburn Sr. and Roger Blackburn Jr., Katie Blackburn, and Maddie Noonan.

Sarah Hatfield finished the fifth grade and is very excited that she will be able to see her mother, Jackie Hatfield, every day next year at school. Sarah is on the NorthStar Cheer Elite team, following in the foot steps of her sister, Sidney. She also is playing softball at pitcher, catcher, and third base. She is not sure which direction to go but having a mind of her own, she will eventually let us all know.

Sarah

Esther, Barbara & Denise

Denise Cooper hosted Esther and Barbara Howard for the graduation of her son, Clay Cooper, in Fairfax, Virginia, (see p. 12). Barbara, who has a catering business, has branched out to decorate beautiful cakes.

SJJ sees 10,000 patients in 6 months

Facility averaging around 65 patients per day

By Mike Moore
mmoores@jessaminejournal.com

Chris Bowe said SJJ saw 90 patients on May 26, the greatest number of patients in a single day.

Saint Joseph-Jessamine RJ-Corman Ambulatory Care Center reached a milestone on Saturday, June 6, when it saw its 10,000th patient since opening Jan. 2.

It's significant because as Administrator Chris Bowe explained, that figure has exceeded what Saint Joseph Health Care projected over the first six months of operation.

"We're averaging about 65 patients a day," Bowe said. "It's quite a bit more than what we anticipated."

"We had expected to see 6,600 patients in the first six months," Jeff Murphy, director of public relations and marketing, said.

On May 26, Saint Joseph-Jessamine saw its greatest number of patients in a single day when 90 patients visited the facility.

"The nice thing was there were zero eloped (those who leave due to a long wait) patients that day," Bowe said. "We want to see less than two a day, and we have averaged less than two a day."

The reasons for the community's acceptance of Saint Joseph-Jessamine are simple, Bowe said.

"I think we're seeing people who want to be treated close to home, and they're more willing to walk in the door with some things (illnesses, injuries) that we had not planned on," he said. "I think six months into it, what you see is this facility was very well equipped, and the planning was well enough that the facility is built for it; we have the staff, and now the community is responding and we're seeing those (all types) cases."

Additionally, the Saint Joseph-Jessamine staff of physicians, nurses and technicians are seasoned veterans when it comes to emergency care.

"What we've seen is the experience of the physicians here, where all of the physicians have worked at Saint Joseph hospitals for 20 years," see SJJ on page A5

Tyler, Spencer, Ted, & Trey

Tyler Wright moved back to Cincinnati from Charleston, SC in October. He is working for the Cincinnati public schools and plans to complete his masters degree and teaching certification in education. In addition to teaching, he would like to coach.

Trey Wright continues to work for Convergys in Cincinnati. He coached his brother, Spencer, in track events shot and discus for Cincinnati Country Day school. Trey made his annual pilgrimage to the Superman celebration in Metropolis, IL, which he has attended since high school with a friend.

Logan

Leslie and Glenna Hatfield have welcomed a new grandson, Logan Wyatt McClanahan, born to Ronny and Gypsy McClanahan. Logan Wyatt was born on May 4, 2009, in Richmond, Virginia. He weighed in at 8 pounds, 3.4 ounces and was 21 inches tall.

Sidney

Sidney Hatfield was a Freshman Football and Basketball cheerleader this year. Her eighth grade squad came in first place five times and one second place in cheer competitions all over central Ohio. In one event they placed higher than five high school teams who competed. They took a first place win at The Ohio State University, which was a HUGE event! As a Middle school squad, they were asked to be an expedition squad for the Ohio High School OCC competition, which has never been done before. On top of all that effort, Sidney still maintained a 3.5 GPA.

Pauline & Josephine

Josephine Anderson had her second hip replacement in May and did well. She will be 89 on July 4th. She has good days and bad days, but her spirit is exactly as feisty as she has always been.

Pauline Morgan was in the hospital for a week, but makes sure Josephine is cared for while taking care of her own affairs. She enjoys getting out for activities and she always looks fabulous.

bring your own table service, drinks, and any side dish you would like to share. Phyllis Blackburn will make sure the grill is going.

The auction, so vital to funding the Reunion and doing projects like the Anderson Hatfield Cemetery, will be held at the picnic. Items will be displayed so that everyone has a chance during the picnic to see what is available for auction and decide upon which items they would like to bid.

A committee was formed to revitalize the Anderson Hatfield Cemetery. That committee will meet after the picnic on Friday night at the Jenny Wiley Lodge in the large meeting room adjacent to the lobby. Everyone is invited to the discussion.

While each family is responsible for making reservations at Jenny Wiley for their rooms, Margaret Rader will try to assist you if there is a problem. Jenny Wiley's number is 606-886-2711. Margaret's number is 606-287-7231.

An order form is attached to the newsletter if you want to order 2009 Reunion T-shirts.

See you at Jenny Wiley!

Laura Cooper, who is now a senior at Trinity Christian School in Fairfax, VA, is busy with many different interests. She continues to excel in her piano performances.

This year Laura took first place ribbons in her concerto and ensemble competitions.

Laura, who is planning to study nursing, is volunteering at INOVA Fair Oaks Hospital in post-operative therapy. Laura also works and takes riding lessons at Scattered Acres Equestrian School in Clifton, VA.

Laura

Susan Neel is a school psychologist in Fulton County, Georgia. She had a busy year with school cutbacks and taking care of her new rescue Golden Retriever, Pearl. Pearl had been a street dog for a while, but with Susan's love, she has adjusted immensely.

Laura, Susan's daughter, and Jonathan Logan celebrated their 17th anniversary on April 5. Alex, their daughter, will be starting high school this fall, and she is interested in everything. Jake, their son, will be in the fourth grade and loves math.

Paul and Eleanor

Paul and Eleanor Morris are spending their time running some cattle and producing hay on the farm. They also are spending as much time as possible with their grandchildren.

Anderson

Michelle Bowe was working on becoming more skilled with her camera. Anderson, her daughter, agreed to play dress up and take pictures. Michelle reports that she is still learning about the camera, but her model certainly is cute.

Guy

Guy Hatfield just finished his first year of middle school, and things will never be the same (per the principal and his Spanish teacher). Guy was not allowed to compete with the middle school wrestling team since he was only in sixth grade, but he was allowed to practice and be a part of the team at the meets. He is looking forward to football and actually being able to wrestle next year.
