From weddings to retirements, Jeff and Polly's Clan have had an exciting year to share.

The 2010 Hatfield Reunion promises to be a celebration of old and new Coming full circle, Steve and Bev Hatfield, who were the sparks in initiating the Jeff & Polly Hatfield Reunion, will chair the 25th Hatfield Reunion. The 25th Reunion will be from July 29-August 1, 2010, at the Jenny Wiley State Park in Prestonsburg, Kentucky.

Steve and Bev will be the Head Camp Counselors at Jeff & Polly's Summer Camp for the ultimate in destination camping. You will experience the thrills of yesteryear with some memories from Hatfield Reunions over the past 24 years, but will have new delights with Jeff & Polly's Summer Camp adventure. There will be crafts, square dancing, and PJs and popcorn. In addition there will be Reunion favorites like the Picnic, Horseshoe Tournament and the Twenty-First Golf Tournament.

Jeff and Polly's picnic is always a highlight of the Reunion. It is understandable considering how we all grew up enjoying good food. This year will be no exception. In planning for the picnic on Friday afternoon, keep in mind that hot dogs will be provided, but you are requested to bring your own table service, drinks, and any side dish you would like to share. Phyllis Blackburn and her crew will make sure the grill is going so things will be hot.

The auction, so vital to funding the Reunion and doing projects like the Anderson Hatfield Cemetery, will be held at the picnic. Items will be displayed so that everyone has a chance during the picnic to see what is available for auction and decide upon which items they would like to bid.

While each family is responsible for making reservations at Jenny Wiley for their rooms, Margaret Rader will try to assist you if there is a problem. If you will not be using a room, please let Margaret know before you cancel. Jenny Wiley's number is 606-886-2711. Margaret's number is 606-287-7231.

An order form is attached to the newsletter if you want to order 2010 Reunion T-shirts.

See you at Jenny Wiley!

Nothing could better explain the Jeff and Polly Hatfield Reunion than Jack Caudill, 7, in his paper about family traditions and in his excitement about a conversation with 100-year-old Opal Hatfield (on the cover). Even at his young age, Jack recognizes the value in reconnecting with our extended family at Jenny Wiley each year.

The 24th Hatfield Reunion proved to be "amazin"

More than one hundred of Jeff and Polly's descendants joined Janet Bowe and Joy Kay Hatfield, co-chairs for the 2009 Hatfield Reunion, at Jenny Wiley State Park in Prestonsburg, Kentucky. The family all came together from July 30 to August 2, 2009, for the Hatfields' Amazin' RACE.

Early arrivals gathered at the Jenny Wiley Pool on Thursday for a Pot Luck Dinner. Friday morning, everyone enjoyed the leisure pursuit of choice, including golf and the pool.

Jeff and Polly's Picnic on Friday afternoon had laughter and entertainment for everyone. It also started racking up points for their Reunion teams.

Jackie Hatfield and Mitch Hatfield, Stuart and Stacey Hatfield created a sparkling array of games that had everyone involved in the Hatfields' Amazin' RACE. The picnic included a balloon toss, whistling through crackers, and an ice cream eating contest in which the participants were blindfolded.

After all the games, serious bidding began as Roger Blackburn started the auction. Roger always manages to make the auction an exciting event. The auction, first suggested by Arnold Norman, is a special event because of the variety of items available and because the funds are used to support the Reunion and family activities like the Anderson Hatfield Memorial Cemetery. Delicious home-baked goods, gloves, homeplace prints, and a quilt and stitched pillowcases were all demonstrate the multiple talents in the family. In all, the Reunion gained $1,140.

Saturday morning started with the Twentieth Annual Bill Morris Memorial Golf Tour-namment. As always, the pairings resulted in a very close tournament. Ryan Noonan led Tom Hatfield and Nina Rose Hatfield to a first-place finish. One stroke behind them were two teams: Cory Craig, who captained Ted Hatfield, Trey Wright, and Jack McQueary; and Steve Caudill, who led Joe Bowe, Jeanne Hatfield, and Stuart Hatfield. The longest drive by a man was by Jeff Hatfield, while his mother, Jeanne Hatfield, won the longest drive by a woman. Ted Hatfield had the longest putt and Ryan Noonan had the shot that was closest to the pin.

After an afternoon filled with games and fun at the Jenny Wiley pool, the family gathered to contribute to the family history. One topic of discussion was the marriage pattern of the first cousins. Marlene Adams and Polly Jane Breeze described the different reactions from their mother, Melda Morris, as the two sisters got married. Marlene's choice, Bentley, was "living on the edge." Although Melda lent Bentley the money for Marlene's ring, she cried as Bentley and Marlene were getting married. Joe Breeze said Melda laughed when he and Polly Jane left for the church because she was so sure about Polly Jane's choice for a husband--at least that's Joe's version. These sessions are always a lot of fun, while documenting family events and discovering more about the personalities.

Janet Bowe and Joy Kay Hatfield, co-chairs for the Reunion, conducted the business meeting. One topic of discussion was the Anderson Hatfield Memorial Cemetery Project (see page 23). The changes in the picnic format were well received. In addition, the whole family recognizes the wonderful job that Phyllis Blackburn, Teresa Craig, Kim Blackburn, and Sharon Blackburn do in putting together the picnic each year.

After the business meeting, the Hatfields' Amazin' RACE continued. The events created hilarity as participants tried to pass an orange down the entire team--without using any hands, putted with an orange, chased beads, and joined in other games of skill and teamwork. In a continued effort to learn about our family history, the youngest members of the family were quizzed on their knowledge of the Hatfield-McCoy Feud. Universally, the 24th Reunion was declared one of our best experiences.

Opal Stafford Hatfield--the last of her generation

Opal Stafford Hatfield, of Georgetown, Indiana, died on November 23, 2009, in Columbus, Ohio, just 44 days before her 101st birthday. The daughter of Thomas and Zella Gooslin Stafford, Opal was born on January 7, 1909, in Pike County, Kentucky. Opal was a graduate of Matewan High School in Matewan, West Virginia, and of Morehead State University in Morehead, Kentucky.

In 1936, she married the love of her life, Teddy Clyde Hatfield. As she often told, it was Clyde, a mature sixth grader, who wrote her name in her first school book. They were married 58 years when Clyde died in 1994.

For forty-three years, Opal taught generations of children in elementary schools in Pike County, Kentucky, and in Georgetown, Indiana. Her students included her four children, Teddy Clyde, Margaret Ann, Nina Rose, and Joy Kay. In addition, she taught family member, JB Bowe.

TC and Opal model their pjs at the 1991 Hatfield Reunion

Opal was also well known for her interest in civic affairs and her skill with quilting and needlework. She faithfully attended the Georgetown Town Board meetings each month. When there was no money to mail her favorite ordinance to each citizen, she went home, made a quilt, and raffled it to provide sufficient funds for the Town Board to mail the ordinance. Town Boards through the years greatly honored her by naming a street "Hatfield Way," presenting her plaques, and designating "Opal Hatfield Day" for her 100th birthday.

Opal lived by the Golden Rule, spoke kindly of others, and was good to others. She worshiped in the Georgetown Christian Church.

No one enjoyed the Jeff and Polly Hatfield Reunions more than Opal. She attended each one to spend time with the family and to eagerly participate in the events. For many years she made a quilt for the auction to provide money to benefit the Anderson Hatfield Memorial Cemetery.

Opal Stafford Hatfield

One key to Opal's remarkable century is the way she started each day with a sense of purpose and optimism. At age 90, Joy Kay asked her if she wanted to go see grandson, Trey Wright's, college campus in Massachusetts. Opal told her, "No, I'll just wait and go to his graduation." At 94, after having been in the hospital for a week, Opal told the doctor that she needed to get her hair done for her grandson's graduation. The doctor said it was the first time he had ever released a patient to get her hair done. Granddaughter, Shelley Rader, took her directly to the hair salon in her hospital gown. After flying to Massachusetts, Opal took in all the graduation activities.

Opal remained in her home in Georgetown until she was 99. In large part she was able to stay in her home because her loving niece and nephew, Marlene and Bentley Adams, helped her so much.

As Bentley quoted Opal, he was the "man in charge." Opal did not have anything done to the house without Bentley's approval.

Bentley Adams, Opal, and Marlene Adams at the 2009 Reunion

Opal had a tremendous sense of humor and she loved to laugh with people. Close to her 100th birthday, she was talking with a Canadian at a party.

He wanted to know the secret of her long life. She told him, "I don't smoke, I don't curse, I don't drink," and then realizing he was doing some of those things at the moment, she said, "but I don't care if you do."

After the death of her Clyde, Opal traveled to Kentucky, Ohio, Missouri, Massachusetts, Florida, and spent a year in Windsor, England. During that year she traveled throughout England and visited France and Scotland.

She is buried in the Anderson Hatfield Memorial Cemetery by her beloved Clyde.

Opal celebrated her 100th birthday with friends and family, including (l-r) Nina Rose Hatfield, Teddy Clyde Hatfield, Joy Kay Hatfield, and Margaret Rader

Josephine Anderson dies in Georgia

Josephine Marie Hatfield Anderson, daughter of James Estil and Pearl Blackburn Hatfield, died on September 11, 2009, in Roswell, Georgia. Josephine, born on July 4, 1920, was the oldest grandchild of

Josephine with her parents, Pearl and Estil

William Jefferson and Polly Margaret Runyon Hatfield. Since Josephine was very close in age to Jeff and Polly's youngest children, Katherine Langley Hatfield Scott, and William Jefferson "Bill" Hatfield Jr., she was a playmate of Katherine and Bill's.

Two of Josephine's teachers were her uncles, TC and Bob Hatfield. She was a graduate of Matewan High School in Matewan, West Virginia.

At the inception of World War II, Josephine married John Dillard Anderson on February 4, 1940. John served in Alaska and was promoted to the rank of 2nd Lieutenant during the war. While John was in Alaska, Josephine rode a train to Canada with nine-month old Susan to be with him. She later told stories of the kindness of strangers on the trip as she traveled so far with a young child.

Subsequently, John returned to Mingo County, West Virginia, where he was the superintendent of schools. While Josephine's primary responsibility was to care for her family, she worked at a furniture store and eventually became a school secretary in the Mingo County school. When John had bypass surgery in 1983, Josephine completely changed her methods of cooking to ensure that he had a heart-healthy diet.

Pauline Morgan lived to 88

Pauline Hatfield Morgan, born January 18, 1922, was the youngest daughter of Estil and Pearl Blackburn Hatfield. She died on March 29, 2010, in Roswell, Georgia.

Pauline started school at five. She said Josephine was in school, so she just went along with her. She had her uncles, TC and Bob Hatfield, as teachers as had her sister, Josephine. Pauline was a very bright student, as TC confirmed. She started Pikeville

Junior College at sixteen and graduated from Pikeville with a degree in elementary education. Pauline then graduated from Eastern Kentucky State

Herschel and Pauline at the 1997 Hatfield Reunion

College in home economics in 1944 and from the University of Kentucky in home economics education in 1952. Pauline taught in the Pike County School System and the Matewan School System for forty-three years until her retirement in 1984.

On August 29, 1975, Pauline married J. Herschel Morgan, who was a teacher, high school principal, and Mingo County, West Virginia, school superintendent until his retirement in 1975.

Pauline and Herschel liked to travel and they traveled to England, The Netherlands, South America, and Australia. In addition, they cruised in the Baltic Seas, Greek Islands, Turkey, and the Panama Canal.

Pauline had a lead foot leading to several speeding tickets (that might be a Hatfield trait). She was an amateur actress and a collector of

Matters of the Heart

Charlotte & Kelly

Charlotte Edgehill-Partrick and Kelly Garret Craig [Phyllis Blackburn] were married in Statesville, North Carolina, on September 19, 2009. A large group, including Kelly's grandparents, Phyllis and Parlis Blackburn, parents, Teresa and Gary Craig, and brother, Cory Craig, traveled to North Carolina for the ceremony. Charlotte and Kelly honeymooned in Mexico before returning to Charlotte, North Carolina, to live. Charlotte is a nurse coordinator at the Carolina Medical Center and Kelly is an account manager for TEKsystems.

Lindsey & Ben

Lindsey Renae Brooker [Polly Jane Breeze] married her high school sweet heart, Ben Taylor, on January 2, 2010, in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Grandparents, Polly Jane and Joe Breeze, joined parents, Sherri and Mark Brooker, and brother, Matt, in the celebration. Marlene and Bentley Adams, Bryan, Ashley, Dylan, and Suzanne Johnson, and Mark, Mark II, Alex, Riley, Katie and Dawn Adams all attended. Lindsey and Ben honeymooned in Jamaica before returning to their home in Siloam Springs. Lindsey is a marketing officer at the Arvest Bank Group and Ben is a graphic designer and freelance photographer.

Sherri & Mark

Sherri [Polly Jane Breeze] and Mark Brooker, who were married June 9, 1984, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary this year in style. They vacationed in Miami and the Florida Keys.

Pam Hatfield married Morris "Mo" Wells on July 16, 2008. Mo owned a barber shop in Richmond, Kentucky, before moving to Florida. He and Pam met at church. They are splitting their time between Sevierville, Tennessee, and Ft. Myers, Florida. In July they will entertain granddaughter, Emily Sallee, and great niece, Carlysle Hatfield, in Tennessee.

Tonya Lynn Hatfield [Quentin Hatfield] married Sergei Vlasik on December 26, 2009, in Orange City, Iowa. They chose the historic courthouse rotunda as the site. Sergei is from Kiev, Ukraine, and has a six year old son, Alexander, who already calls Quentin "Grandpa."

Teresa and Gary Craig [Phyllis Blackburn] celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary on June 14.

Leslie and Glenna Hatfield celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on March 25.

Robin and Tim Felty will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary on August 17.

Brittany & Roger

During spring break, Roger Daryl Blackburn Jr. [Phyllis Blackburn] rented a brand new Mustang to take Brittany Gilmore to dinner at the Beach House Restaurant in Florida. After dinner, Roger popped THE question, to which Brittany answered "yes." They are planning to be married in the summer of 2011 after they both graduate from the University of Kentucky. Not even a UK loss later that night could dampen their excitement--which is going some. A couple of days later, they celebrated by parasailing for the first time.

FOR THE RECORD

Laura

Laura Denise Cooper [Ted Hatfield] graduated magna cum laude from Trinity Christian School of Fairfax, Virginia, on June 6. Laura has played the piano with the same teacher for the last nine years and she gave her last high school recital before graduating. Her family was so proud of the job she had done, they posted it online so all friends and family could enjoy her performance. Check it out on YouTube at Wyatt Studio: Chopin Scherzo in B flat minor. In the fall Laura plans to attend the University of Kentucky, where she will study nursing and reconnect with family and friends in Kentucky.

Lindsey

Lindsey Renae Brooker Taylor [Polly Breeze], pictured here at the Eiffle Tower, graduated from John Brown University in Silom Springs, Arkansas in December 2009 with a double major in Marketing and Business Administration. She is now a marketing officer with the Arvest Bank Group.

Annie

Anne Marie "Annie" Bowe [Janet Bowe] graduated from New Albany High School in New Albany, Ohio, in June. Annie lettered all four years in track and cross country, in addition to receiving All League and All District honors in both sports and being a regional qualifier and state qualifier. Annie graduated with an award of merit academically and received distinguished honors for her senior seminar project. She received both a ROTC award and another scholarship for leadership in the Peer Buddy Organization at New Albany High School. This is a club where students are paired up with developmentally disabled students to assist them in social and extra curricular activities in the community. Annie is going to Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas, where she received an ROTC scholarship. She will be an army nurse.

The pitter patter of little feet

Abigail Madison Woodall [Arnold Norman] arrived on July 23, 2009, weighing in at seven pounds and nine ounces. She is the darling of her parents, Tara and Michael Woodall. Her grandmother, Sheri Stout, and great-grandmother, Iva Norman, enjoy her walking and growing, as Sheri put it, "like a weed." Abigail's older sister, Caitlin, will turn four on August 9 and will start preschool in the fall.

Abigail Madison

Great-grandmother, Iva, welcomed another great-granddaughter on July 27, 2010, when Brianna Lynn Miller was born. She is the first child of Amy and Brian Miller and the delight of her grandmother, Cathy Skidmore.

JB Bowe, with wife, Janet, and grandchildren, Ryan Bowe and Bennett Caudill at the 2009 Reunion, retired May 31. As he said, "It's the right time." JB, who worked for AT&T in Columbus, Ohio, became the zoning officer for Plain Township in 1994. He advanced to become the Plain Township administrator. In addition to dealing with the enormous spurt of growth to New Albany and Plain Township, JB worked on an agreement among Columbus, New Albany, and the Metro Park District to form the 1,2000-acre Rocky Form Headwaters Metro Park. While JB will do some consulting, he plans to spend more time with Janet, his children, and grandchildren.

Jeremy "Rob" Hatfield [Lowell D. Hatfield] is studying business at Florida Gulf Coast University. He is also learning the practical side of business by working full-time.

Jamie L. Caudill [Arlene Huffman], a graduate of Morehead State University, is working for the University of Louisville as a Cancer Control Specialist at the Brown Cancer Institute.

Hatfields on the move

Brianna

Brianna Sullivan [Sheryle Sullivan] continued to excel at the Belfry Middle School this past year. She was a member of the cheerleading squad, which was the regional champions, the Pike County Champs, and second in the National Cheerleading Association national competition in Louisville, Kentucky. It is no surprise that Brianna will be cheering for Belfry High School next year! She graduated from the Belfry Middle School on June 8th. She was a member of the National Junior Honor Society, the Student Leadership Team, the cheerleading squad, the soccer team, and the Homecoming Court.

Nina Rose & Tip

Nina Rose Hatfield and Hord "Tip" Tipton made their first trip to South America by traveling to Brazil in September 2009. In November they traveled to British Columbia. While Tip was engaged in a board meeting with ISC², Nina Rose took a sea plane to Victoria for the day. They continue to enjoy their home in Florida and visits from family and friends.

Opal, Karen, & Joe

Karen and Joe Bowe, (here visiting with Opal Hatfield on a trip to Florida in 2009) are saddled up for Texas. Joe was promoted to vice president for domestic distribution and transportation for Pier 1 Imports. He is responsible for six Pier 1 distribution centers and the transportation network servicing 1050 retail stores. Joe is now based in Ft. Worth, so Karen, Joe, and Ryan are headed southwest on July 8. Chelsea is at Capital University in Columbus, Ohio, and Annie is headed to Texas Christian University (see p.14).

Quentin & Lynn

Lynn and Quentin Hatfield, pictured here with Joy Kay Hatfield, Margaret Rader, and Spencer Wright on New Year's Eve in 2007, have moved back to their home in Nicholasville, Kentucky. After staying in temporary quarters for a while, Quentin says, "I'm gluing the furniture to the floor! In the meantime, they have been busy with Tonya's wedding and have traveled to Iowa and Wisconsin.

Michelle

Michelle Hatfield [Steve Hatfield], left, developed a new product line for Isotoner that will be introduced this fall. The gloves with "smarTouchTechnology" allows one to operate handheld touch screen devices while wearing gloves. Michelle's design, for which she is credited as the inventor and has a patent, lets you stay connected while your hands stay warm. For the second time, "O" magazine will feature Michelle's design as one of Oprah's favorite things. Michelle traveled to Zhouzhaung, China, in February to check on the progress of turning her designs into gloves.

Trey

Trey Wright [Joy Kay Hatfield] moved to Gunnison, CO, in January, where he works for Convergys Corporation. He has been working on his snowboarding. He made his annual trek to the Superman Celebration in Metropolis, IL, before coming to the 25th Reunion.

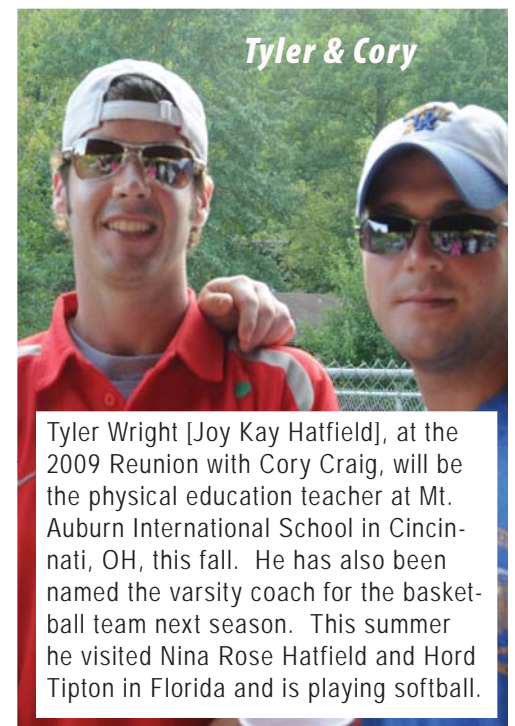

Eleanor and Paul Morris, who have been to every Hatfield Reunion, are staying busy and healthy. Paul reports that they have "hay on the ground" so that is good.

Bryan, Suzanne, Ashley, & Dylan

Bryan and Suzanne [Marlene Adams] Johnson, pictured with their children, Ashley and Dylan, have had a busy year. They were in Arkansas for Lindsey [Polly Jane Breeze] and Ben Taylor's wedding. They were caught in a snowstorm on the return trip to Indiana, which made the trip longer and more exciting.

Bryan and Suzanne spent a week on the Grand Caymen Island in March. They flew down on a private jet and had their own condo. It was so wonderful, they are ready to go back. Ashley and Dylan were in the care of grandparents, Marlene and Bentley Adams.

Tyler & Cory

Tyler Wright [Joy Kay Hatfield], at the 2009 Reunion with Cory Craig, will be the physical education teacher at Mt. Auburn International School in Cincinnati, OH, this fall. He has also been named the varsity coach for the basketball team next season. This summer he visited Nina Rose Hatfield and Hord Tipton in Florida and is playing softball.

arts and leisure

Abbey

Abbey Bowe [Janet Bowe], who will be a freshman at Lexington Catholic High School in the fall, created a sensation in a contest for the best short fiction to rewrite Harry Potter. She won in the 13 and younger category for reimagining the scene at the Astronomy Tower.

Roger & Sharon

Roger Blackburn [Phyllis Blackburn] surprised wife, Sharon, with a trip to Nassau, Bahama, in October. They celebrated Sharon's new bachelor's degree and birthday. They had a great time on this second honeymoon. What a guy! Now, Sharon is halfway through the journey toward getting her master's degree in business management. Let's see what Roger does to top this trip.

Asher

Asher Bowe [Janet Bowe], age 7, has this leisure thing down pat as he lounges in the pool in Kentucky.

Katie

04/16/2010

Katie Blackburn [Phyllis Blackburn], ready for her junior prom, has finished cheerleading and will concentrate on her National Honor Society activities and deciding where to go to college. That will be a long list of possibilities with her 3.9 GPA. She also has her first job as a cashier at Kroger's.

Steve & Bev in Virginia with grandchildren

Bev and Steve Hatfield took grandchildren (l-r) George, Willem, Emily, and Owen Hatfield to visit Stuart and Stacey Hatfield in Hampton Virginia. While there, they visited the battleship Wisconsin, which crashed in early 1950s and needed a new front end. In order to save money, the Navy stopped work on inactive fleet, so it is reserved for National Emergencies.

The Blackburns go sledding

Owen & Willem

Owen and Willem Hatfield [Steve Hatfield] love Legos, board games and puzzles. Willem does arts and crafts with his mother, Michelle, as well as soccer, baseball, swimming, and basketball. They went with parents, Mitch and Michelle, to visit grandparents, Bev and Steve Hatfield, in Bradenton, Florida, for Thanksgiving. There they fed the local flamingos.

Owen Hatfield [Steve Hatfield] plays baseball, but he mastered the art of bench sliding during brother Willem's games.

Maggie Blackburn [Phyllis Blackburn], Jack & Bennett Caudill [Janet Bowe], and Maddie Rose Noonan [Phyllis Blackburn] are just a swingin' in the back yard on a summer afternoon.

Sidney & Brooke

Sidney Hatfield [TJ Hatfield] pictured here with her cousin, Brooke Hatfield, finished her freshman year at Big Walnut High School in Sunbury, Ohio, in style. In addition to making the honor roll, she was on the JV football cheerleader and will be on the competition cheerleader squad for her sophomore year. She also has her temporary driver's license, so her mother, Jackie Hatfield, says "Lord, help us all!"

Jeanne Hatfield played with George and Stuart Hatfield [Steve Hatfield] in 2009. Stuart surprised George for his birthday by traveling back from Virginia.

Sydney and Taylour Hone [Margaret Rader] are vacationing with their aunt, Lisa Rader, at Dale Hollow Lake. Taylour spent a week at church camp swimming and boating.

hatfields score

Tom

Tom Hatfield [TJ Hatfield], pictured here with "Devil Anse Hatfield" and "Randall McCoy," ran two marathons this year. He ran "The Flying Pig" in Cincinnati on May 2. Cheered on by Jackie, Mitch, Michelle, Willem and Owen Hatfield, after the race Tom said, "I have no idea what I was thinking. I will never do that again." Nonetheless, on June 12, Tom ran the "Hatfield-McCoy Marathon." He ran from South Williamson over the mountain to Blackberry Creek and back to Williamson. Tom was excited to run the course because of our heritage and family. As he ran down Blackberry Creek, he ran by Jeff and Polly's farm, including the home site of his grandparents, Guy and Lilly Hatfield. Three cheers for Tom!

Matt

Matt Brooker [Polly Jane Breeze], surfing here in Barbados, completed his sophomore year at John Brown University in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Matt is a member of the golf team and played in tournaments in Kansas, Texas, and Oklahoma. He will play in Arkansas State Golf Association tournaments this summer.

Spencer

Spencer Wright [Joy Kay Hatfield] completed his freshman year at Centre College in Danville, Kentucky. His basketball team competed in the NCAA Division III tournament for the fourth year in a row. He took four of his mates to Oldsmar, Florida, to visit Nina Rose Hatfield and Hord Tipton for Spring Break. He is now doing an internship in the Chief Financial Officer's organization in ISC² before returning for the Hatfield Reunion and school.

Ryan & Zach

Ryan Bowe [Janet Bowe] and Zach Blackburn [Phyllis Blackburn] both play catcher for their baseball teams. Ryan plays for the New Albany, Ohio, team while Zach catches for the Big Walnut team in Sunbury, Ohio.

Guy & Jackie

Guy Hatfield [TJ Hatfield] finished the 7th grade on the honor roll. He played on the Big Walnut LaCrosse team and will start football conditioning this summer. Jackie has broken her ankle--so she is not moving very fast.

Sarah

Sarah Hatfield [TJ Hatfield] finished the 6th grade and will be on the cheerleading squad next year. She also plays 3rd base and left field in the travel softball league.

Greta Jo Helms, who retired in 2008, is relaxing, reading, and enjoying life while she works on some health issues.

Linda and Jim Hatfield are staying close to home and enjoying their flowers. They sent their best to everyone.

Caleb Hatfield [Leslie Hafield], 6, collapsed and had to be flown to the pediatric intensive care unit at Cabell Huntington Hospital with a serious staph infection. He is on ventilator and has a chest drain in place to drain infection. Leslie reports that Caleb seems to be responding well to treatment.

Iva Norman and Cathy Skidmore went to North Carolina to visit new granddaughter, Brianna Miller. Over July 4 they are going to Texas to visit Cathy's son, Eric Miller.

Lisa & Shelley

Shelley Rader [Margarat Rader], pictured here with Lisa Rader (right) at the 2008 Reunion, has a new position in Huntsville, Alabama. Shelley is a Special Investigator retained by the United States Office of Personnel Management. She works for the US federal investigative services and does security background investigations for national security clearances of

Clay

Clay Cooper [Ted Hatfield] is in Chattanooga getting some practical experience in construction this semester before he returns to school.

Marlene and Bentley Adams have been in the remodeling business this year, as they have added on to their house. Marlene reports they are almost done, so now they can enjoy the Indiana heat.

Ben

Ben Hatfield [Ted Hatfield], pictured here at the 2009 Hatfield Reunion, is serving with the US Army in South Korea. Ben will be in South Korea for a year.

James Helms [Greta Helms], who spent a lot of time taking care of his father, Ken, during his illness, is on the move. He transports automotive parts for a major dealership throughout Tennessee and Mississippi for dealers and auto repairs. He is also restoring trucks like the one pictured above. It is a hobby that he started with Ken.

Josephine and her sister, Pauline, were extremely fashionable women. In addition to "dressing to the nines," Josephine was known for her chicken and dumplings, being an expert gardener, and singing her grandchildren to sleep with "Clementine."

Josephine moved to Roswell, Georgia, to be near Susan, her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She attended the Hatfield Reunions until her health made it difficult to travel.

Josephine was a perfect combination of being pleasant and feisty. She always had a smile on her face and will be greatly missed by the Hatfield family.

She and John are buried in the Woodmere Cemetery in Huntington, West Virginia.

an excellent seamstress who could make anything from a dress to drapes. She is remembered for both her wit and her independent approach to life.

Pauline and Herschel were supporters of the Hatfield Reunion and traveled from Georgia until their health made it difficult. Pauline was also a frequent contributor to sessions on the family history and to the genealogy of the Hatfield family. Herschel and Pauline are buried in Huntington, West Virginia.

Cemetery project progresses

The Jeff and Polly Hatfield project to update information and improve the Anderson Hatfield Memorial Cemetery is well under way. A core group, pictured to the right, worked on the cemetery on October 17-18 to update an inventory of the grave sites and to take pictures.

We are fortunate that an inventory was completed by Fannie Hatfield Norman and her son, Tom Norman, in 1976. In addition, Aggie Lee Blackburn Hager, Peggy Tussy, and Lorna H. Justice completed an inventory in 1989. With the help of these two inventories, the group updated the data and have prepared a spreadsheet with the updated information. In addition, pictures of each grave site were taken.

A mock web site has been prepared and will be completed soon. A decision about the best method of putting the web site on the inter net must be made next.

The project will continue to update information, seek historic designations, and consider physical improvements that may be needed to the site.
