It's a Road Trip to the 2019 Hatfield Reunion

Charlotte Craig, the 2019 Chairperson, has organized the road trip of all road trips, as we head to the 34th Jeff and Polly Hatfield Reunion. The Reunion will be from August 1-4 at the Jenny Wiley State Park in Prestonsburg, Kentucky.

On Thursday evening BE PREPARED TO STOP at the Jenny Wiley pool at 7:00 PM. Family members will get together informally to kick off the Reunion.

Friday is a day of leisure and a good time to decorate your door for the door decorating contest. The theme will be: "Family Vacations." In addition to door decorations, it is an opportunity to rest and relax at the pool, hike the trails, or play golf before the fun starts later in the day.

At 4:00 PM, the NO U TURN Horseshoe Tournament begins at the Dewey Lake Dam. At the same time, those who are 10 and under can test their skill at the POTHOLES AHEAD Corn Horn Tournament. At 5:30 PM, the Phyllis Blackburn family will host the REST AREA Picnic for Jeff and Polly's family. There will be plenty of food and games to satisfy everyone's tastes. The picnic will culminate in the TOLL ROAD Auction. Roger Blackburn and Tom Hatfield will auction off the home-made and unique items contributed by family members to support the Reunion and family activities, like maintenance of the Anderson Hatfield Memorial Cemetery. Afterwards, the family will gather at the Jenny Wiley Lodge for the LOGGING AHEAD Pajama Party.

On Saturday morning, the Hatfields will gather at 8:00 AM for the Golf Cart Crossing Golf Tournament (the 28th Bill Morris Golf Tournament), This tournament is open to family members of every skill level. It is a terrific way to spend quality time with family members you may not know as well as others.

The afternoon will feature Slippery When Wet Pool Games at the pool led by Tracy Noonan and Maggie Blackburn. The HISTORIC SITE AHEAD Preservation Session will start at 4:30. The focus will be about living with the grandchildren of Jeff and Polly (e.g., Josephine, Teddy, Arnold, Racine, Robert, Paul, Phyllis, and Greta). So bring your best stories and be prepared for laughter.

At 6:00 the FOOD AHEAD dinner will be followed by a short business meeting and awards from the weekend activities, led by Charlotte. Afterwards, Charlotte and her team are ready for the ARE WE THERE YET Road Trip Games, which are designed for fun for everyone.

Sunday morning at 8:30, the EXIT LEFT Breakfast Buffet will be served at the Jenny Wiley Lodge.

The Reunion is a wonderful opportunity to spend time with family and reconnect with your cousins.

Phyllis Blackburn and her family will host our picnic. Hamburgers and hot dogs will be provided, but please bring your own table service, drinks, and any side dish to share.

Heroic Hatfield Avengers successfully defend Jeff and Polly's Reunion in 2018

Tony Stark's Billionaire Auction proved to be no exception to the generosity of the family in supporting the Reunion. With Roger Blackburn and Tom Hatfield coaxing family members, treasurer Steve Caudill reported that we made $2,210. The fund pays for Memorial Day flowers for our grandparents and for aunts and uncles like Ethel, Anderson, and Earl who do not have family members. It also helps with the overall maintenance and mowing of the cemetery, providing food and supplies for the Reunion, and some of the

The threat posed by that dastardly villain Thanos McCoy to use his Infinity Stones to thwart the Jeff and Polly Hatfield Reunion throughout eternity was successfully defeated by the Hatfield Avengers in 2018.

Trey Wright and Joy Kay Hatfield chair the 2018 Reunion

Co-Chairs Joy Kay Hatfield and Trey Wright created a winning environment for the Hatfield Avengers beginning with the Hatfield Games and Movies on Thursday, August 2. The family was divided into four Battle Squads to defeat Thanos McCoy: Black Widow, Captain America, Iron Man, and Spider-Man. Team members contributed to their overall team scores by their participation in activities like horseshoe, golf, pool games, and the Avenger Games throughout the weekend.

Friday, a day of rest before the big battle with Thanos, was capped off with HULK'S HORSESHOE HURL AND PLAYGROUND GAMES with the main event being won by the duo of Kelly and Cory Craig. The second place team was Zach Blackburn and Roger Blackburn Jr.

Later, Phyllis Blackburn with Teresa Craig, Kim Blackburn, and Sharon Blackburn hosted JEFF AND POLLY'S MARVEL-IOUS PICNIC at the Dewey Lake Dam. This has always been a family favorite as we have the opportunity to share a meal and play games. The Infinity Stone Balloon Toss challenged the teams to stay dry, while the Avenger Kite Aeronautics was a real hit with the younger members of the family, especially Roger Blackburn Jr.

contributed by Margaret Rader, and a stack cake made by Phyllis Blackburn. Other goodies were contributed by Teresa Craig, Anna and Trey Wright, Cassie Caudill, Maddie Noonan, Janet Bowe, Averi and Ethan Blackburn, and Lisa Rader.

Jeff and Jeanne Hatfield hosted the 7-Iron-Man Golf Tournament (the 27th Bill Morris Tournament) on Saturday morning. Tyler Wright led his team of Nina Rose Hatfield and Zack Blackburn to victory, while the second place team was Cory Craig, Roger Blackburn, and Larry Tschaenn. Individual prizes were given to Tom Hatfield for being closest to the pin, Kelly Craig for the longest putt, and longest drives by Nina Rose Hatfield and Tyler Wright.

The Jeff and Polly Historic Preservation session focused on Jeff and Polly's great-grandchildren's activities in high school and Adventures with Roger. Many of Jeff and Polly's grandchildren went to Belfry High School. Janet Bowe was a cheerleader, Arlene Huffman and Marlene Adams were majorettes, Bill Morris played basketball, and Larry Scott played football. Ted Hatfield, Margaret Rader, TJ Hatfield, Greta Helms, Marlene Adams, Steve Hatfield, and Sheryle Sullivan all played in the high school band. Gary Norman was the co-valedictorian in 1966 and a number of Jeff and Polly's grandchildren were in the National Honor Society or Who's Who, including Ted Hatfield, Margaret Rader, TJ Hatfield, Lowell D. Hatfield, Janet Bowe, Marlene Adams, Leslie Hatfield, Gary Norman, Quentin Hatfield, and Sheryle Sullivan. Marlene and Sheryle were class officers, while Gary was on the Student Council and Quentin Hatfield was on the debate team.

As the discussion turned to the next generation, Adventures with Roger came to the forefront as Jeff and Tom Hatfield led the discussion about being baby-sat and working for Roger Blackburn Sr. Roger had an inventive way of keeping his charges entertained while babysitting. For example, Joe and Chris Bowe had been bathed and were ready for bed when Janet and JB left them with Roger. Upon their return home, they discovered that Roger had let them play outside in the muddy garden. Both Jeff and

On Saturday night the family gathered for dinner and the business session. During the business session Jeff Hatfield agreed to lead the replacement of parts of the entry sign at the Anderson Hatfield Memorial Cemetery that was originally placed by TJ Hatfield, Steve Hatfield, and JB Bowe. In addition, the Reunion approved adding a stone to the grave of Parmelia Emeriah Lowe Runyon, the mother of Polly Margaret Runyon Hatfield. Currently, her grave, which is in Belfry, Kentucky, has a rock designating her burial site.

After the business meeting, the Battle Squads squared off in the Avenger Infinity Games to thwart Thanos McCoy's plot to ruin the Jeff and Polly Hatfield Reunion. Trey Wright tested the Squads with Thor's Avenger Trivia and then the Squads participated in skill events like the Hawkeye Archery Shoot, the Captain American Shield Throw, and the Iron Man Blaster shooting contest. The event was capped off with the Avenger Infinity Race with the Spider-Man Crawl, the Black Widow Spinning Side-Kicks, the Thor Hammer Lap, and the Infinity Stone Walk. While all the Squads helped to beat Thanos, the Spider-Man Battle Squad was the leading Squad.

The Spider-Man Battle Squad proved to be the leaders in defeating Thanos McCoy at the 2018 Reunion. The Battle Squad, led by Bev Hatfield, Margaret Rader, and Janet Bowe, garnered big points in the Avenger Infinity Games and other Reunion challenges. The Battle Squad members were (L-R) Bev Hatfield, Emily Hatfield, Roger Blackburn Jr., Averi Blackburn, Kacye Mays, Zach Blackburn, Margaret Rader, Janet Bowe, Jeff Hatfield, Kelly Craig, and June Craig.

Wasting no time, Ashley, the daughter of Suzanne and Bryan Johnson, started her graduate program in physical therapy at the University of Miami on May 20. Ashley will be in the surf and sun area for a three-year program--even though her time in the sun is limited by her intense studies. She is currently in the same gross anatomy class as is taken by medical students.

Brittany

Brittany Nicole Hatfield [T] Hatfield], graduated from the Ohio State University in December. She has a teaching degree specializing in early childhood education. She has her license for pre-kindergarten through the third grade and is finishing the requirements for her fourth and fifth grade endorsements. Harrison

Twin Cousins

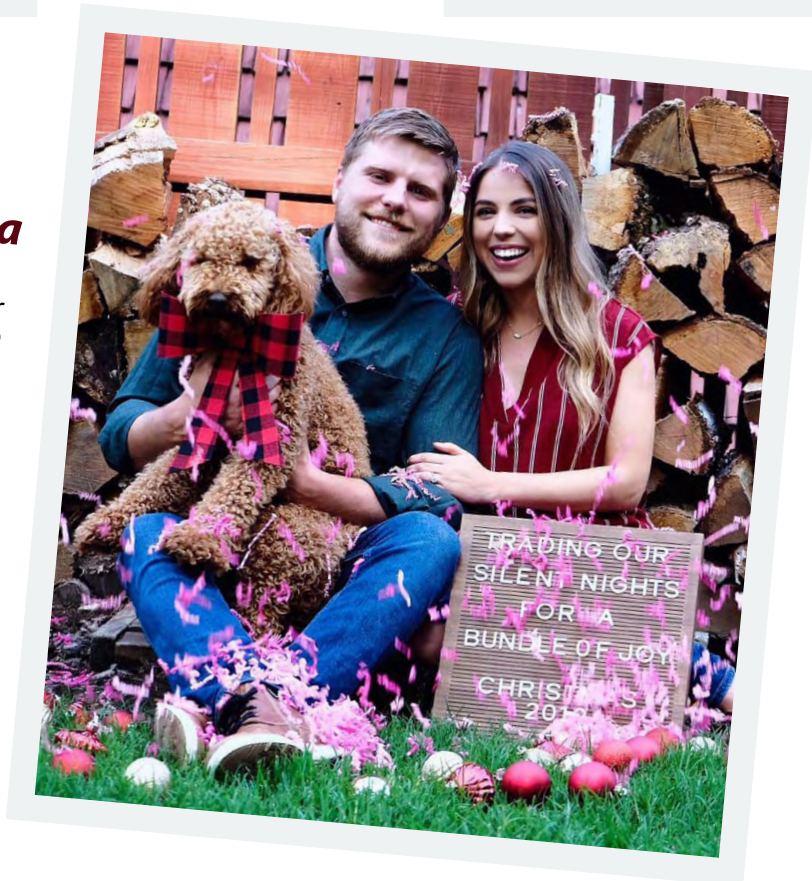

Harrison Chase Wright, [Joy Kay Hatfield] born August 18, 2018, to Kate and Tyler Wright, had a lot to think about as he joined his older brother, Griffin Clyde, in Cincinnati. Just three weeks later, his "twin" cousin, Diana Opal Helene Wright, was born on September 5, 2018. Diana, who is named for her maternal great-grandmothers (including Opal Stafford Hatfield), lives with her parents, Anna and Trey Wright, in Jonesborough, Tennessee.

Kacye

Kacye Mays [Racine Hamilton], who plays with an elite volleyball team from Evansville, Indiana, had a volleyball tournament in Birmingham, Alabama, in June. After traveling to the Alabama border with her parents, Jason and Angelica Mays, they decided to take a picture with the ball so they could remember what the trip was about. When Jason looked, there was not only no ball, but no volleyball bag, no shoes, and no team uniform. They turned around and traveled back home. A trip that should have been 5.5 hours became a 14 hours trip, which meant sweet home Alabama didn't seem so sweet anymore! Kacye was named the team's most valuable player. They are prepared for this year's Reunion theme with a road trip to Florida.

Abby and Brianna

Abby Woodall and Brianna Miller [Arnold Norman], both 9, are cousins who are sharing the experience of playing together on their volleyball team, the Hit Squad. In addition, she is a trainer for LA Fitness and is also attending graduate school at the University of Louisville. Brianna has started competing in body building and has done well. Cole Bentley, #66 and a former Belfry High School football player, has been named preseason All-ACC. Sheryle and Bill Sullivan, Brianna's parents, are mostly on the road to Louisville to visit and to watch Louisville football games.

Jeff

Jeff Hatfield [TJ Hatfield] is the senior coach in the Hatfield family, since he has coached the Big Walnut Varsity Softball team for 13 years. He coached daughter Brooke and cousin Maggie Blackburn in those years. He also coached against cousin Chelsea Bower Tibbetts when she played at New Albany High School in New Albany, Ohio.

The third baseman on the team was Tyler Wright [Joy Kay Hatfield], and they won the Division IV State Championship. These days Tyler and his wife Kate are more likely to have their eyes on sons Griffin and Harrison than a baseball!

Rodney Blackburn [Phyllis Blackburn] works at a contracting firm based at the Ohio State University, but found time to a hunt a turkey during the last season in Ohio.

Hatfields on the Move

On December 13, 2018, Jeanne Hatfield [TJ Hatfield] was involved in an extremely serious car accident. Since then she has endured a series of operations and seemingly endless rehabilitation. Throughout it all, Jeanne has shown her resolve and determination to improve each day. She is home and still attending rehabilitation. Her recovery has been facilitated by wonderful family support. Here she is with her grandchildren, (L-R) Brittany Hatfield, Sidney Heiden, Sarah Hatfield, Brooke Hatfield, and Matt Heiden.

In May she was in Florida to see son, Spencer, marry Ashley Teal (p. 18).

Joe and Veronica Covington [Paul Morris] found some time from a busy schedule to spend a day at Keeneland in Lexington, Kentucky. It has been an eventful year with the graduation of son, Isaiah (p. 23), and Joe becoming the Judge Executive for Scott County, Kentucky, after retiring as Principal of Scott County High School. He is now challenged with providing services to one of the fastest growing counties in Kentucky and was named the Most Outstanding Republican in Scott County.

Skylar, Simone, Margie, and Larry

Skylar Scott (p. 23) was joined by mother, Simone, and his grandparents, Margie and Larry Scott, in Kempner, Texas. Simone's sister Petra (far left), brother-in-law Christian, and brother Thomas flew in from Germany to join the festivities.

Larry and Margie live on a farm in Crawfordville, Florida. They are dealing with some damage from a hurricane, but love their move out of Tallahassee. Michael, their son, is in welding school and will finish in the fall. Daughter, Michelle "Missy" Spoon, is the assistant manager at an eye care center.

Anthony, Skylar's father, has retired from the US Army and is responsible for the trash removal in both Kempner and nearby Ft. Hood.

Griffin Clyde

Griffin Clyde Wright [Joy Kay Hatfield] did his first job admirably in being the ring bearer at Spencer and Ashley Wright's wedding (p. 18). Griffin carried a pillow made by his great-grandmother, Opal Stafford Hatfield. In addition to his job as ring bearer, Griffin is taking swim lessons and recently won his first badge. He is also a regular at the library program in his hometown of Maderia, Ohio.

Roger and Sharon

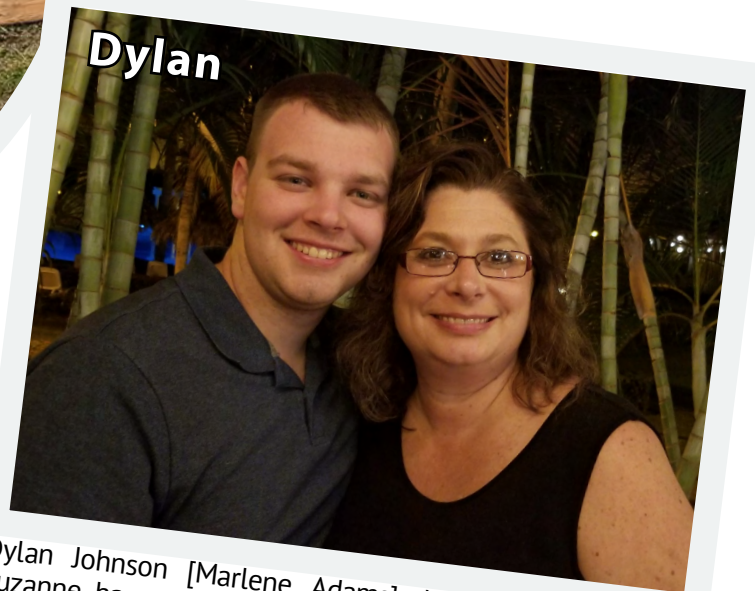

Roger Blackburn [Phyllis Blackburn] had back surgery on April 30, but is recovering nicely. He is walking three miles a day and healing in Centerburg, Ohio, with the help of Sharon. His official retirement will take place at Jenny Wiley on August 2. In the meantime, Katie and Larry Tschaenn with Ava and Gabriel are living with them in preparation of building next door. Roger, Brittany, Ethan, and Averi Blackburn are building a new home across the street from Roger and Sharon. Their home is expected to be completed in October.

Joel

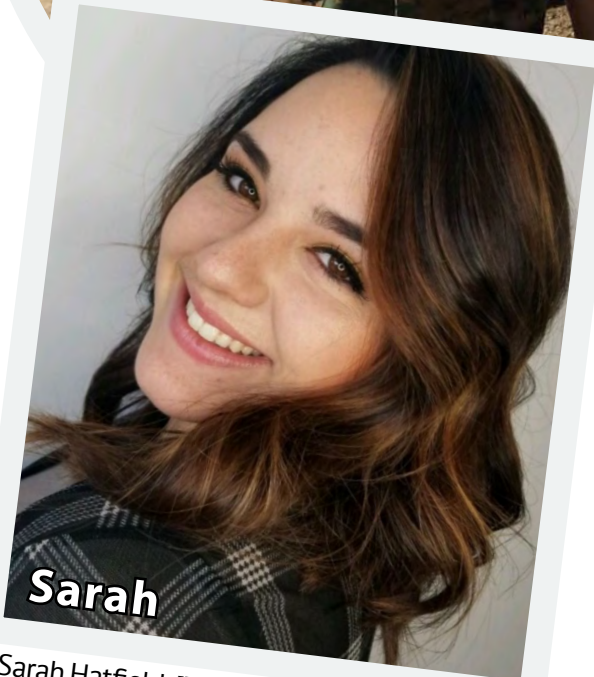

Joel Morris [Bill Morris] has been in the Marine Corps since his graduation from Goose Creek High School in South Carolina in 2018. He completed his basic training in Parris Island, South Carolina, was deployed to Arizona, and is now back in North Carolina.

Dylan

Dylan Johnson [Marlene Adams], here with his mother Suzanne, has completed his first year at Purdue University as a top ten freshman and was on the Dean's List (the good one) in the School of Agriculture. This summer, in addition to a short vacation in Jamaica, Dylan is doing an internship on the family farm. He is spending a week in each area to learn about the operations.

Sarah

Sarah Hatfield [TJ Hatfield] is now a licensed "Hair Doctor," as her father, Tom Hatfield, puts it. She works at a high-end salon in Columbus, Ohio.

Ava, Gabriel, Katie and Larry

Katie Tschaenn is a nurse in the Neuro/Spinal Surgery unit at Riverside Hospital in Columbus, Ohio. Larry is completing his business degree this summer from Capella University. Layla

Jo and Gary

In October Jo and Gary Norman traveled to the Holy Land, which Gary described as a "wonderful experience!" Here they were at the Sea of Galilee, which is the lowest freshwater lake on earth and where much of the ministry of Jesus took place. They continue to be involved in volunteer work. Their daughter, Jennifer, is a Charge Nurse at University Hospital in Louisville. Melissa, their daughter, has her own consulting business. Granddaughter Layla (above), will be 12 years old in August. Before starting the sixth grade this year, she vacationed in Panama City, Florida.

The Hatfields in Virginia

Bev Hatfield and her family celebrated Christmas in Leesburg, Virginia, with Stuart and Stacy Hatfield hosting. Bev with (L-R) Owen, family friend Chrissy, George, Sophia, Emily, Michelle, Willem, Mitch, and Stuart enjoyed their special Hatfield Christmas t-shirts. While there, they went to an escape room and found all the clues to make sure all the children received their gifts from Santa. Michelle and Bev helped Sophia make a blanket. They all played games and, as Bev said, made precious memories.

Michael and Chelsea

Chelsea Tibbitts [Janet Bowe] loves her job with the Ft. Worth Boys & Girls Clubs doing marketing and fundraising. Michael works in the Southlake Carroll School District teaching 7th grade Texas History and coaching football, basketball, and track. He loves working with middle schoolers, and was even voted funniest teacher by his students!

Anna, Diana, and Trey

With Diana's arrival in September, Anna and Trey Wright [Joy Kay Hatfield] have not been on the international travel circuit they enjoyed over the last several years. They did take Diana to her first Kentucky Derby Party in Cincinnati, which she clearly enjoyed.

Paul and Eleanor

Paul and Eleanor Morris are busy with the responsibilities associated with 100 acres of farm and cattle in Somerset, Kentucky. They joined Marlene and Bentley Adams in Pike County over Memorial Day weekend to decorate family graves.

The nice thing for Paul and Eleanor is having son, Greg, and Melissa, as Paul says, living within throwing distance. Their granddaughter Katisha Morris is a kindergarten teacher and granddaughter Kyndal is a senior at Murray State University in Murray, Kentucky, studying biology.

Sidney and Matt

Maddie

Maddie Noonan [Phyllis Blackburn] has just finished the 6th grade. She is playing the flute and cheerleading. She celebrated with a trip to Disney World.

The family continues to have positive news with Sidney Heiden. Sidney, shown here with husband Matt, had been diagnosed with a brain cancer. As her mother, Jackie, notes, we are all celebrating Sidney's success over four years of stabilizing and kicking it back!

Greta, James, and Tonya

Greta, James, and Tonya Helms are in the Memphis, Tennessee, area. Greta is dealing with some health challenges, so it is helpful to have James and Tonya with her. James, who works with a family transportation firm, drives with a co-driver from the Memphis area to the Cincinnati area daily from Tuesday through Saturday.

Commitment to Church

The Adamses

Marlene and Bentley Adams were joined by Alex Adams, Dawn Adams, and Riley Adams on a mission trip to Haiti. There Marlene discovered a University of Kentucky fan, Bentley was welcomed, and Alex, Dawn, and Riley enjoyed some beach time on their off day. Their trip was purposed to assist with renovation of Haitian schools.

Lindsey, Noah, Owen, and Ben

Polly and Joe

Polly Breeze is recovering from a partial knee replacement in April, while Joe is dealing with some medical issues. Polly fixes dinner for the entire family one night a week, including Sherri and Mark Brooker and great-grandsons Noah and Owen Taylor with their parents, Lindsey and Ben. It seems that Owen has Polly snowed and Noah has Joe snowed. They are excited about the new great-grandchild, who is expected by Matt and Samantha Brooker (p. 25).

An Abbreviated McCoy Genealogy¹

Privately printed.
¹Peter Cline husband of Elizabeth McCoy and Marthe Cline wife of Asa Harmon McCoy were the siblings of Perry A. Cline. As a result, Perry A. Cline's sister Marthe was the sister-in-law of Randolph "Bander" McCoy and Perry is frequently referred to as Bander McCoy's brother-in-law.
²This Floyd Hatfield, son of John Hatfield and Isabelle Vance, was accused by Randal McCoy of stealing his pig. This led to the trial conducted by Anderson "Precher Anse" Hatfield.
³Red Bush married Mary New. Their daughter, Georgia Ann Stafford, married Thomas Samuel Scott and was the mother of Dovel Scott (who married Katherine Langley Hatfield) and Lilian Lily Scott (who married Guy White Hatfield). Their daughter, Nancy Jane Stafford, married Floyd William Morris and was the mother of Grant Orville Morris (who married Melba Buskirk Hatfield).
⁴Thomas married Zella Goslin and was the father of Opal Stafford (who married Teddy Clyde Hatfield Sr.)

You may be related to the McCoy's!

Several branches of Jeff and Polly's family have ties to Randal and Sarah "Sally" McCoy: Clyde and Opal Stafford Hatfield, Melda and Orville Morris, Guy and Lilly Hatfield, and Katherine and Dovel Scott. These branches are descendants of Eleanor McCoy, Sally's sister, who married Compton Stafford.

Moreover, Rachael Jane Staton, Tom Stafford's wife, was the sister of Esther Staton. Esther's husband, Floyd Hatfield, was accused by Randal of stealing his hog. Rachael's brother William Staton Jr. testified in the trial conducted by Preacher Anse Hatfield that the hog was Floyd's (his brother-in-law's). Bill was later allegedly killed by Paris and Sam McCoy, Randal's nephews.

More Twin Cousins On the Way

Tennessee

Clay [Ted Hatfield] and Samantha Cooper have moved back to their beloved Tennessee and are expecting their first child (a little boy) in early August. His name will be William Calvin, after Bill Cooper and John Calvin, the 16th-century protestant theologian and reformer. He will be called Calvin. Clay is currently a captain for Envoy Airlines, American Eagle, and is also a line check airman who trains new pilots and conducts spot checks. Samantha is taking a sabbatical from nursing and settling into their new home in Volunteer country as they prepare for Calvin's arrival.

Kentucky

Blake and Laura [Ted Hatfield] are living in Lexington, Kentucky, and are expecting their first child in January 2020. Blake is enjoying his work with JRA Architects where he creates project renderings, drawings, project proposals, and presentations. As an internal medicine technician/physician assistant with Rood and Riddle Equine Hospital, a large part of Laura's work focuses on neonatal medicine.

Alabama

Taylour and Sidney Hone [Margaret Rader] are in an extremely busy phase of life as they balance school and jobs in Huntsville, Alabama. Taylour, who celebrated her 21st birthday in May, is majoring in criminal justice and Sidney is considering the nursing program.

Bruce Hatfield (center front) has encountered some health issues over the last year. He and wife, Linda, were visited in Hodgenville, Kentucky, by Anthony Hatfield, Virginia Hatfield, Leslie Hatfield, and Tony Hatfield. Bruce reports that he is doing rehabilitation and exercising, so he is getting stronger and feeling well.

Kentucky

OH, KY, NC, TX, and NY

The Bowes do some long-distant travel to keep in touch with each other. Janet Bowe enjoyed some quality time with grandchildren (L-R) Jack and Bennett Caudill and Asher, Anderson, Adam, and Abbey Bowe during the holidays at her home in New Albany, Ohio. Asher, Anderson, Bennett, and Jack then caught some New York vibes in New York to see the Wildcats play Seton Hall with their parents Chris and Michelle Bowe and Cassie and Steve Caudill.

Both Jack and Asher are starting their junior year, so they did a University of Kentucky visit and celebrated Asher's 16th birthday at Keeneland Race Track in Lexington, Kentucky. This spring the Caudills traveled to Texas to visit Joe and Karen Bowe, Chelsea, Kyle Ann, and Michael Tibbetts, and Ryan Bowe.
