You'll need a minute to win it at the 2012 Hatfield Reunion

Chairman Charlotte Craig and Brittany Blackburn invite you to the 27th Hatfield Reunion from August 2 to August 5, 2012. Charlotte and Brittany will lead the Hatfields' unique version of Hatfields MINUTE TO WIN IT. Charlotte and Brittany have developed a variety of games that will challenge teams of Hatfields throughout the Reunion. The co-chairs have planned additional surprises for the group.

The 2012 Reunion kicks off on Thursday evening at 7:00 with Snacks by the Pool. So bring a snack, get in an evening swim, and see your cousins. Afterward, the group will adjourn to the Jenny Wiley Lodge for board games, and card games.

Friday morning offers an opportunity new to the Reunion. Steve Hatfield, Sheryle Sullivan, and Nina Rose Hatfield will lead a family tour of some key Pike County sites related to the Hatfield and McCoy Feud. There will be a historical discussion about how the Jeff and Polly Hatfield family is linked to the events of the Feud. There will also be a review of the events as described in the recent History Channel production. Advanced reservations must be made for this event to facilitate planning and transportation. The tour will leave Jenny Wiley Lodge at 8:00 am and return to the Jenny Wiley Lodge before 3:00 pm so that participants can be at Jeff and Polly's Picnic. Call 727-786-1816 or email halonina1@verizon.net to make a reservation for this tour. (See p. 24.)

The Jeff and Polly Horseshoe Tournament starts at 5:00 pm followed by the ever-popular Jeff and Polly's Picnic and games at 6:00. While a main dish will be provided, please bring your own table service, drinks and any side dish you would like to share. Everyone enjoys the Picnic and everyone appreciates the work done by the Blackburn and Craig families as they organize the Picnic. Following the meal, Roger Blackburn will start the Auction. The Auction remains the main support of the Reunion and other Jeff & Polly Hatfield family activities. Bring those homemade goodies and specialty items to make this Auction a treasured event.

After the Picnic, games, and Auction, there will be PJs and Popcorn as we enjoy movies and games at the Jenny Wiley Lodge. Anyone interested in the Ander-

First Cousins prove they've "Still Got It"

Marlene Adams and Joy Kay Hatfield's idea for Jeff and Polly's descendants to demonstrate their dancing talents proved to be a memorable evening at the 26th Hatfield Reunion. Each generation of cousins worked together to create their own show.

The Tiny Boppers led off the show with a line dance in which the youngest of our family demonstrated their individual styles. The teenage Hip Hoppers did the Cha Cha Slide followed by the Still Cool team channelling Michael Jackson with their version of Thriller. The Still Got It team showcased individual jitter bug styles led by Marlene and Bentley Adams, followed by Polly Jane Breeze and Paul Morris, and Bev and Steve Hatfield. Bonnie and Ted Hatfield danced the clean-up leg of a spectacular effort.

Carrie Ann Inaba (Karrah Charles), Len Goodman (Tommy Hatfield), and Bruno Tonioli (Tyler Wright) proved to be as entertaining as the dancers with their commentary. Karrah told the Tiny Boppers there were some "super stars in the room." The judges were somewhat less enthusiastic with the Hip Hoppers. Tyler told them, "It is never too late to panic." Tommy gave them a 3. That equalled one point for each of his children on the team. The judges did not have a consensus on the Still Cool's shortened version of "Thriller." Karrah thought it was short, but well choreographed, while Tyler said the performance left him wanting more.

Tommy was "thrilled" by the group--especially one of its leaders, Jackie Hatfield. The judges were united in their opinions about the Still Got It team's performance. The performance got a "wow" from Tommy and Karrah said the group could "flat cut a rug." At the end of the evening, it was the perfect score awarded to the Still Got It team that won the Mirror Ball Trophy for the team.

Paris Brlackburn presented the horseshoe trophy to Bentley Adams and Paul Morris.

The dance contest was the culmination of a fun Reunion that kicked off on Thursday night with snacks by the pool hosted by Bentley Adams and Margaret Rader.

On Friday Phyllis Blackburn and her creative team of Teresa Craig, Kim Blackburn, and Sharon Blackburn once again hosted an exuberant picnic. Paris Blackburn and Paul Morris hosted the Continued on p. 4 horseshoe contest, which was won by Paul Morris and Bentley Adams.

Roger Blackburn auctioned home-made items ranging from brownies made by four-year-old Maddie Noonan to a pecan pie and Italian Cream cake made by Phyllis Blackburn. In all the auction proceeds totaled $1,165.

The Twentieth Annual Golf Tournament was played Saturday morning. Jeff Hatfield led his team of Jeanne, Tommy, and Guy Hatfield to a one-stroke victory over Cory Craig's team of Roger Blackburn Jr., Nina Rose Hatfield, and George Hatfield.

Guy Hatfield, Tommy Hatfield, Jeanne Hatfield, and Jeff Hatfield celebrate their golf tournament victory.

The Hatfield Historic Preservation Committee had a lively discussion around what it is like being married into Jeff and Polly's family. Ed Rader [Margaret Rader] had said it's easier "to be a Hatfield than to be married to a Hatfield." Bentley Adams observed that "they always think they are right." Joe Breeze has discovered in 50 years of marriage that "they all travel together." Children spoke of their parents' relationships involving finances. Guy and Lilly Hatfield never talked about finances in front of the children, while Melda Morris kept money under the mattress for a rainy day. LeEttie Norman, Melda, and Katherine Scott all worked at the local school. LeEttie and Melda cooked, while Katherine drove the school bus.

During the Saturday night business meeting, Nina Rose Hatfield demonstrated the prototype for a Jeff and Polly Hatfield Family web site. In addition to information about Jeff and Polly's family, the site would provide the updated inventory of the Anderson Hatfield Memorial Cemetery. The group discussed concerns about making sure that privacy information such as the family address list would not be on the web site.

son Hatfield Cemetery Revitalization Project can join into a discussion at the Lodge.

On Saturday morning the Twenty-First Golf Tournament will be held starting at 8:00 am. Jeff and Jeanne Hatfield will again head up this event. Make sure you contact them to sign up. At 1:00 pm on Saturday the Aqua Games will commence for everyone at the Jenny Wiley Pool after the annual T-shirt picture is taken. At 3:00 pm the Hatfield History Preservation Committee will convene at the Lodge in our continuing effort to document our history. All family members are invited to attend.

The Saturday evening program will begin at 6:00 pm with dinner provided and family pictures followed by a business meeting and awards. Afterwards, be prepared for the challenge of Hatfields MINUTE TO WIN IT.

Matters of the Heart

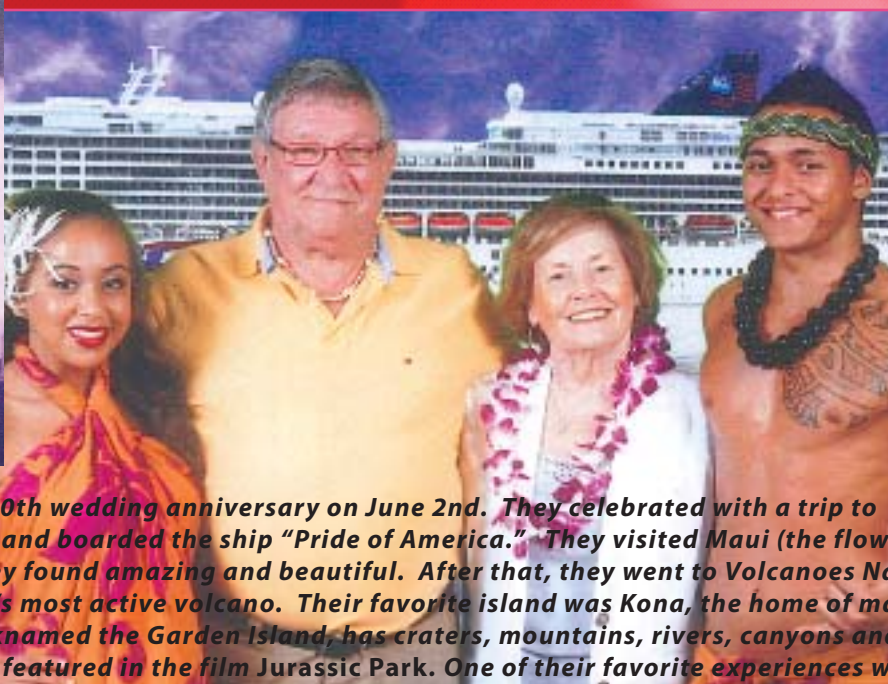

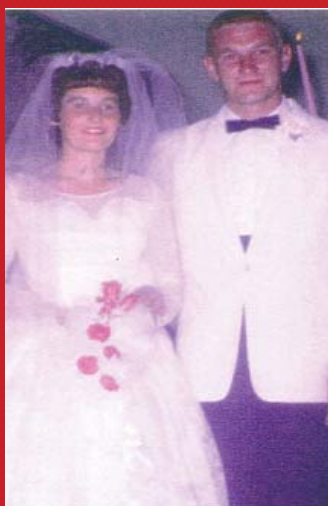

On October 29, 2011, Sheri Gail Norman Stout [Arnold Norman] married Andy Lee Persinger. Andy is a familiar fixture at Hatfield Reunion Golf Tournaments. Sheri and Andy had very small family wedding. Their daughter, Tara, was the matron of honor and their son, Adam, was best man. Adam also walked Sheri down the aisle. Their two granddaughters Caitlin and Abigail Woodall were flower girls. Sheri and Andy honeymooned in Pigeon Forge, Tennessee. Pictured are (L-R) Alicia Persinger; Caitlin Woodall; Adam Persinger; Andy and Sheri; and Tara, Abigail, and Michael Woodall.

Polly Jane & Joe

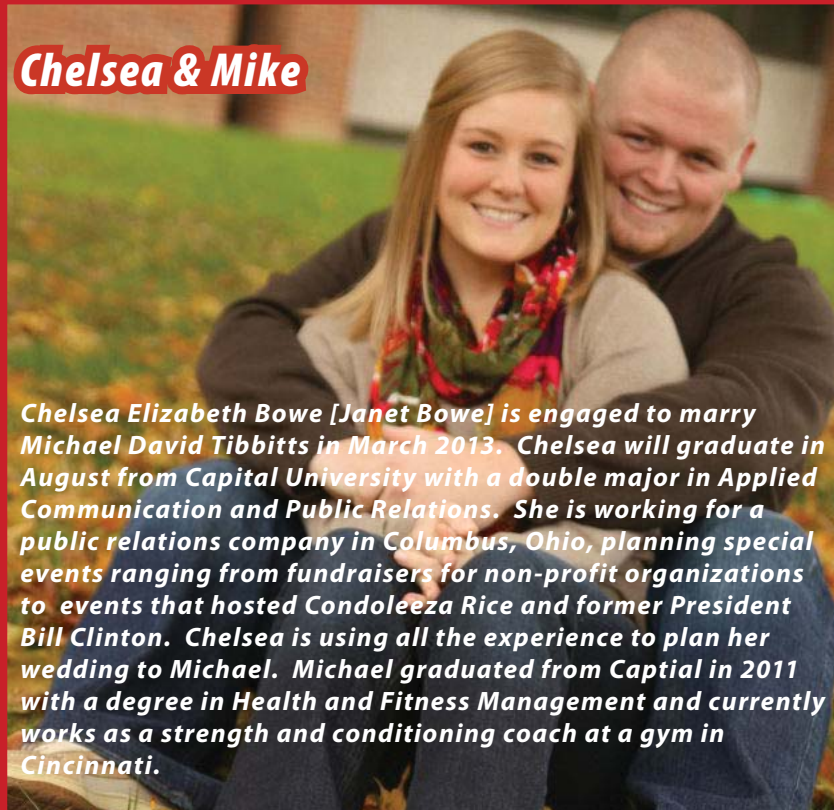

Polly Jane & Joe Breeze, who were married on January 13, 1962, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with 50 friends and family. They dined at the Ruth's Chris Steak House in Louisville, Kentucky. Hatfield family guests included Marlene and Bentley Adams, Bryan and Suzanne Johnson, and Mark and Dawn Adams. Pictured with Polly and Joe are (l-r) Ben and Lindsey Taylor, Mark Brooker, Sherri Brooker, and Matthew Brooker.

Janet & JB

JB and Janet celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on June 2nd. They celebrated with a trip to Hawaii. They flew to Honolulu and boarded the ship "Pride of America." They visited Maui (the flower capital of the world), which they found amazing and beautiful. After that, they went to Volcanoes National Park, home of the world's most active volcano. Their favorite island was Kona, the home of many coffee plantations. Kauai, nicknamed the Garden Island, has craters, mountains, rivers, canyons and palm-fringed beaches and was featured in the film Jurassic Park. One of their favorite experiences was a visit to Pearl Harbor and the USS Arizona Memorial. After that, they spent time on the Waikiki beach in Honolulu. Janet said it was an amazing trip but nothing to compare with the 50 years they have shared and all the blessings they have received.

Chelsea & Mike

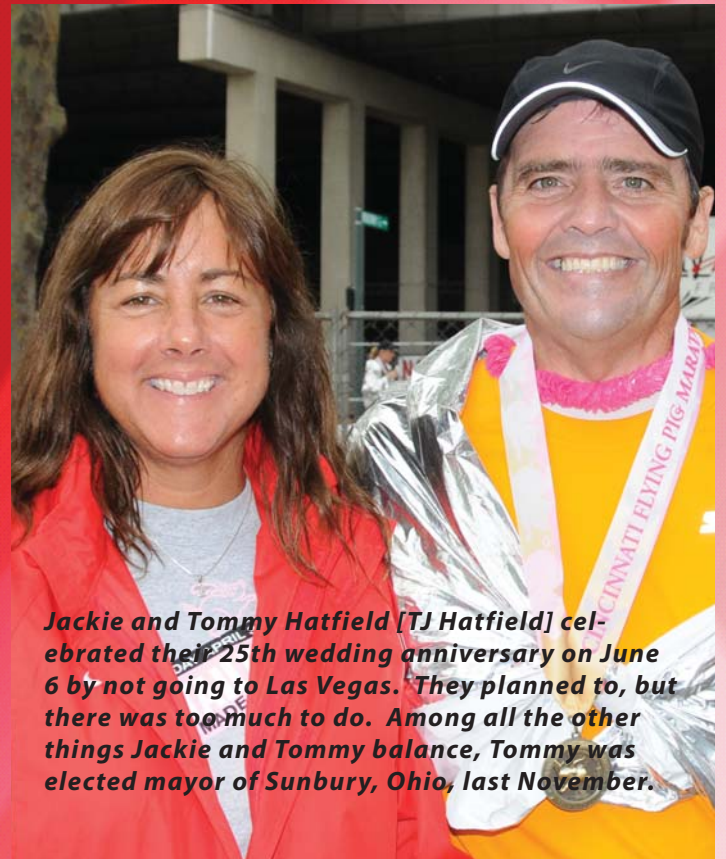

Chelsea Elizabeth Bowe [Janet Bowe] is engaged to marry Michael David Tibbitts in March 2013. Chelsea will graduate in August from Capital University with a double major in Applied Communication and Public Relations. She is working for a public relations company in Columbus, Ohio, planning special events ranging from fundraisers for non-profit organizations to events that hosted Condoleeza Rice and former President Bill Clinton. Chelsea is using all the experience to plan her wedding to Michael. Michael graduated from Captial in 2011 with a degree in Health and Fitness Management and currently works as a strength and conditioning coach at a gym in Cincinnati.

Joe & Karen

Joe and Karen Bowe [Janet Bowe] celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary September 20. He surprised her with spontaneous trip to New York where they stayed in the Marriott on Times Square. Now that they will be "empty nesters" in the fall, Joe and Karen are looking forward to traveling and would love to have family members visit. They have six bedrooms in Texas so all are welcome!

Tommy & Jackie

Jackie and Tommy Hatfield [TJ Hatfield] celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on June 6 by not going to Las Vegas. They planned to, but there was too much to do. Among all the other things Jackie and Tommy balance, Tommy was elected mayor of Sunbury, Ohio, last November.

FOR THE RECORD

Matt

Bert Kierschner, left, shows Matt Brooker and his friend, Chris Eshnaur, around Rome for the television show, Flip My Trip.

Matthew Joseph Brooker [Polly Morris Breeze] graduated as an Eagle Scholar from John Brown University in Siloam Springs, Arkansas, on May, 2012. Matt earned degrees in Marketing and Business. He was a four-year letterman on the JBU golf team and was captain for the last three years. He began work in June with The Fishin' Company as the category manager for seafood at Walmart. Before starting his career, he spent the month of May backpacking through Europe and ending the trip in the Caribbean.

Matt will be appearing on the Travel Channel in late summer on a show called Flip My Trip. While in Rome, Matt and his friend, Chris Eshnaur, were chosen to appear on the show. As a result, their trip changed from staying at a hostel to staying four nights in a five-star hotel. They participated in various activities throughout Rome with the host of the show Bert Kierscher. Their adventures included racing chariots, riding Vespas around Rome, making gelato, and gladiator training.

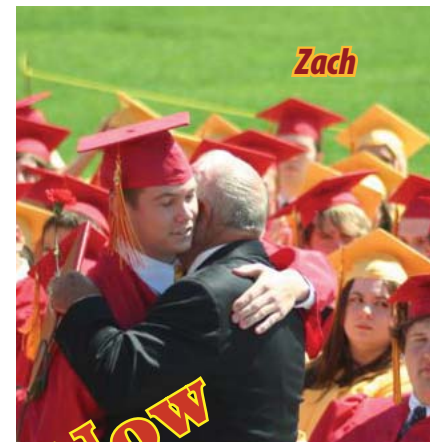

Then

First cousins, Zachary Paris Blackburn [Phyllis Blackburn] and Ryan Joseph Bowe [Janet Bowe], have the sweet memory of sitting on their late Uncle TJ Hatfield's lap when they were three years old. They competed against each other at rival high schools and now they are moving on to the next stage in their lives in sync.

Zach graduated from Big Walnut High School in Sunbury, Ohio, on June 2, 2012, and now Zach is headed to the University of Kentucky. In addition to his studies in kinesiology to become a physical therapist, he will be a student athletic trainer for the football team. [We can only hope he will see additional national championship teams while he is there.] Zach was a member of the baseball team, and he was honored to have his diploma handed to him by his grandfather, Paris Blackburn.

Ryan studied at New Albany High School in New Albany, Ohio, until he moved with his family to Arlington, Texas. While there he has been the long snapper for the Argyle High School football team. His team competed in the State Championship football game played in the Dallas Cowboy Stadium. Ryan will attend Oklahoma State University in the fall, where he will decide on a specific business area of study.

Lauren

Lauren Elizabeth Sallee [Lowell Hatfield] is a new graduate of Zionsville High School in Zionsville, Indiana. She will be a freshman at Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana, in the fall. Clay

Clay Cooper [Ted Hatfield] earned his pilot's license after successfully completing his solo flight on April 11. Clay is studying for his Aeronautics degree at Middle Tennessee State University in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, while pursuing a professional pilot's license. In addition, Clay is working at a sporting goods store.

Pitter patter of little feet

Sophia Lynn Hatfield [Steve Hatfield], born on December 7, 2011, was welcomed by her parents Stuart and Stacey Hatfield. Sophia, here in her Easter best, is a delightful addition to the family and is adored by grandparents, Steve and Bev Hatfield, and siblings, Emily and George Hatfield.

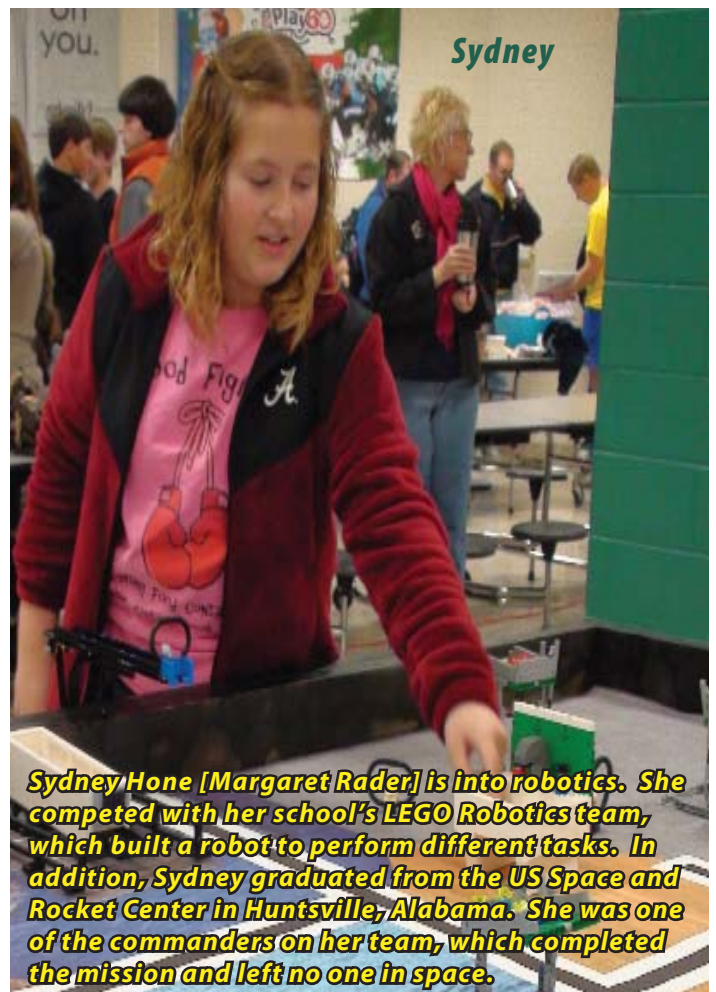

Annie Bowe, here with John Novalis (obviously a smart cadet) has completed her second year of nursing school at Texas Christian University. Annie is in the Army ROTC program where she is ranked top in her class, was promoted to Corporal, and received the Chancellor's award for outstanding cadet. Last fall she was chosen to represent TCU ROTC when former President George W. Bush came to Dallas for an event. In February she again ran in the Cowtown Marathon to raise money for the American Cancer Society and completed the run in 3 hours 44 minutes. In June she will travel to Ft. Knox, Kentucky, and will continue on to Laos for a month where she will study language and cultural development. She will be considered active duty for the Army and is most excited to be there on July 4 when she will attend festivities at the American Embassy.

Stuart

Lieutenant Colonel Stuart Hatfield [Steve Hatfield] was recognized by the National Defense Industrial Association (NDIA) at the 2012 Ground Robotics Champion award presentation in San Diego, California, March 22, 2012. Stuart, who was named the Ground Robotics Champion, manages Army requirements for guns and robots. He authored the strategy for robotics over the next 25 years. Stuart has been a leading advocate for the Army to develop robot programs instead of just purchasing them commercially off the shelf.

Sydney

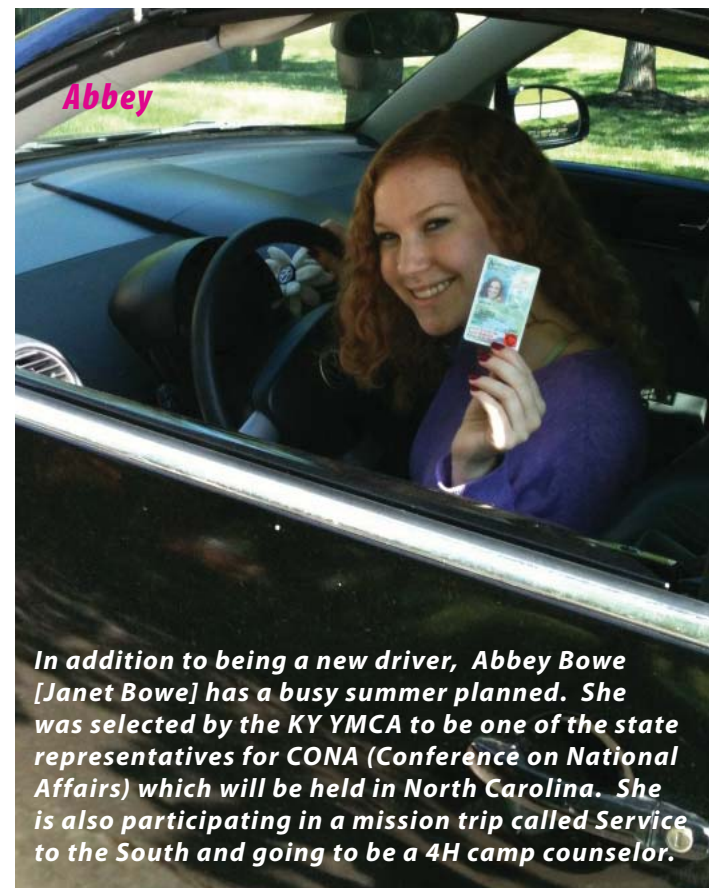

Sydney Hone [Margaret Rader] is into robotics. She competed with her school's LEGO Robotics team, which built a robot to perform different tasks. In addition, Sydney graduated from the US Space and Rocket Center in Huntsville, Alabama. She was one of the commanders on her team, which completed the mission and left no one in space.

Lindsey & Ben

She is also participating in a mission trip called Service to the South and going to be a 4H camp counselor.

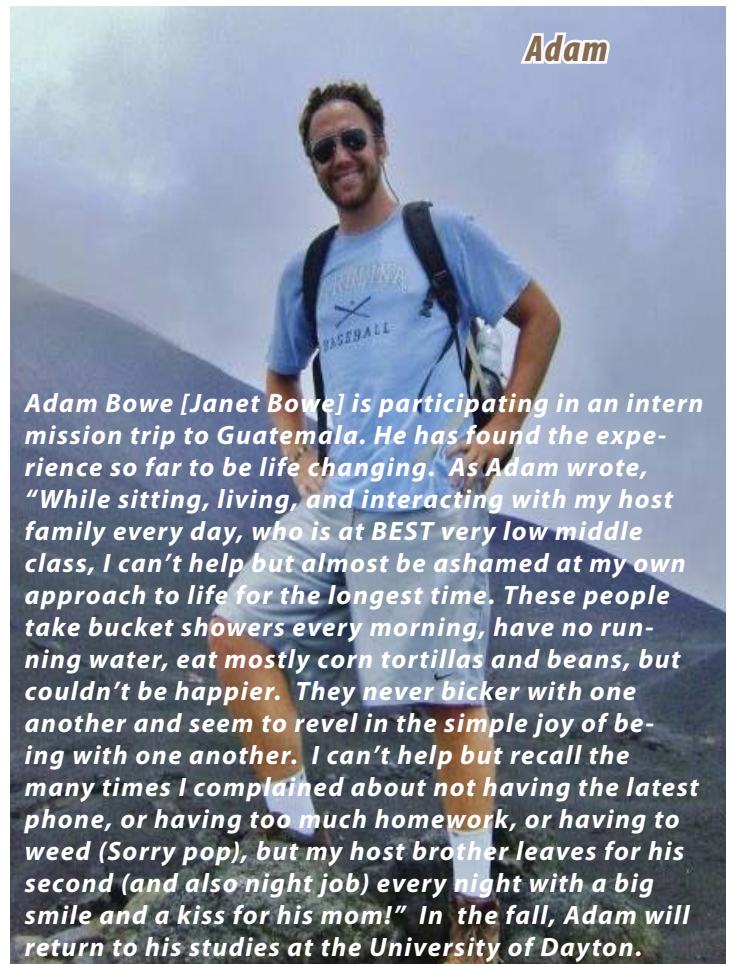

Hatfields on the move

HATFIELD

Maddie

Maddie Noonan [Phyllis Blackburn] made her first trip to Disney World this year and graduated from pre-school. She is busy cheer-leading, taking swimming lessons, and playing t-ball.

Adam

Adam Bowe [Janet Bowe] is participating in an intern mission trip to Guatemala. He has found the experience so far to be life changing. As Adam wrote, "While sitting, living, and interacting with my host family every day, who is at BEST very low middle class, I can't help but almost be ashamed at my own approach to life for the longest time. These people take bucket showers every morning, have no running water, eat mostly corn tortillas and beans, but couldn't be happier. They never bicker with one another and seem to revel in the simple joy of being with one another. I can't help but recall the many times I complained about not having the latest phone, or having too much homework, or having to weed (Sorry pop), but my host brother leaves for his second (and also night job) every night with a big smile and a kiss for his mom!" In the fall, Adam will return to his studies at the University of Dayton.

Nina Rose & Tip

Nina Rose Hatfield and Hord "Tip" Tipton made their first trip to Italy in November 2011. Tip thought the gondolier should furnish bait and tackle when he heard the price of a ride on a Venice canal. They are scheduled to be in Tokyo for a week in July. Tip continues to be the executive director of ISC² and to sponsor Nina Rose's golf tour.

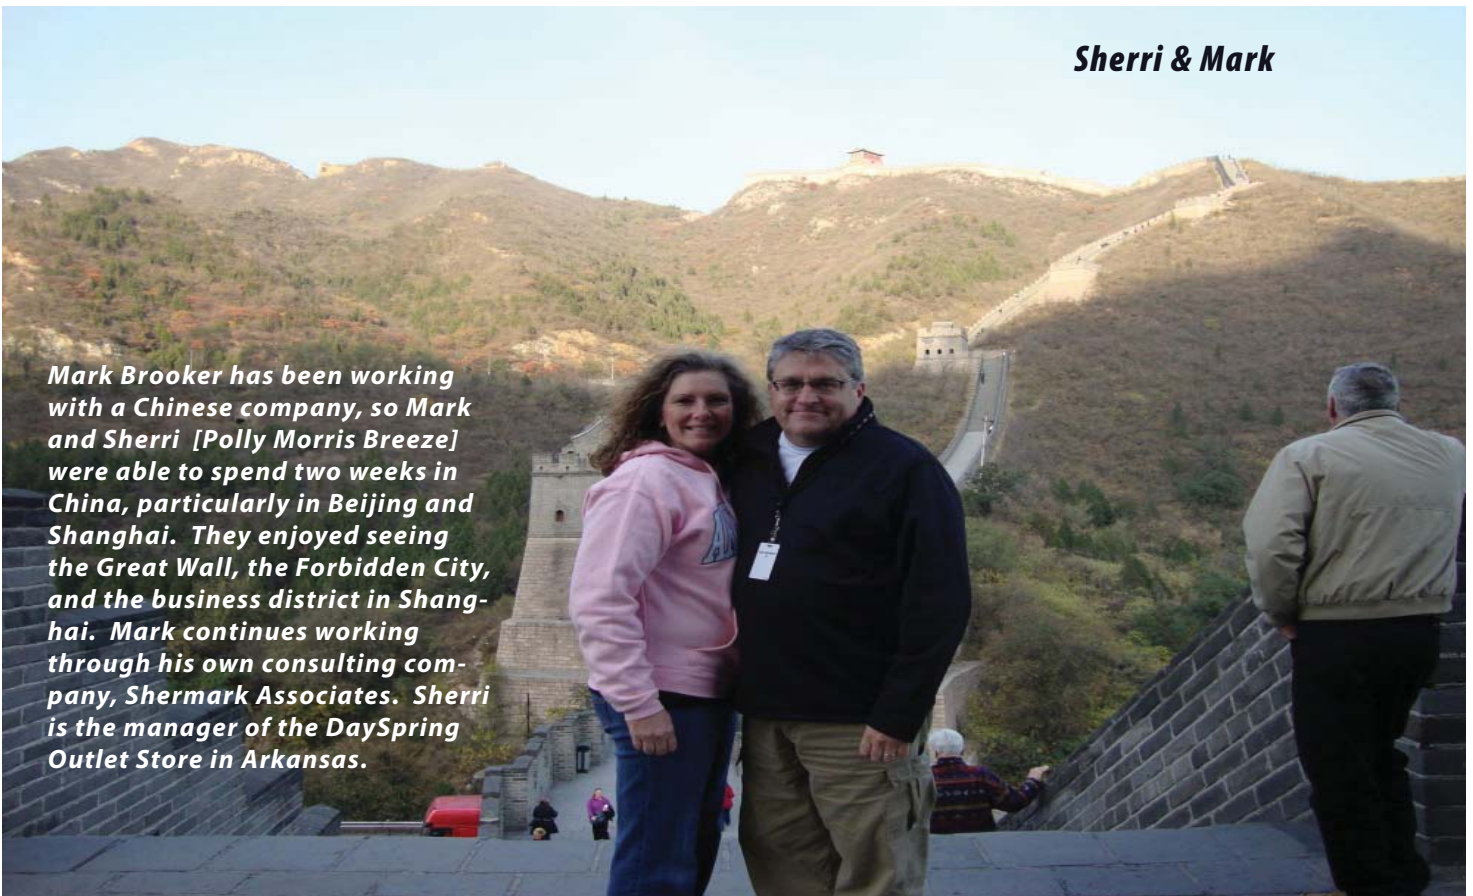

Paul & Eleanor

Paul and Eleanor Morris continue to be busy with their Kentucky farm. They did manage to squeeze in a trip to Washington, DC with their church group this spring.

Sherri & Mark

Mark Brooker has been working with a Chinese company, so Mark and Sherri [Polly Morris Breeze] were able to spend two weeks in China, particularly in Beijing and Shanghai. They enjoyed seeing the Great Wall, the Forbidden City, and the business district in Shanghai. Mark continues working through his own consulting company, Shermark Associates. Sherri is the manager of the DaySpring Outlet Store in Arkansas.

Anna & Trey

Trey Wright [Joy Kay Hatfield], pictured with Anna Swisher, rafted for a week through the Grand Canyon with friends this summer. The meals provided at each stop were world class, which Trey, of course, loved. Trey, who continues to work for Convergys, also made his annual trek to the Superman Celebration in Metropolis, Illinois.

Sheryle, Brianna, & Bill

On May 11, 2012, Brianna Sullivan went to the prom at Belfry High School. Brianna, here with her parents, Sheryle and Bill, has had a busy year. Her Belfry High School cheerleading squad came in sixth at the State Competition. Brianna has finished with soccer and will be working at a restaurant this summer. It is reported that this prom day could also be identified as Bill's nervous breakdown. Bill continues to work at a coal preparation plant and run a carpet business, while Sheryle directs traffic at home and works at the mall.

Michelle

Michelle Hatfield traveled to Times Square in New York to see the Hatfields and McCoys getting prime billing.

Spencer

Spencer Wright [Joy Kay Hatfield] took a summer government course in France as a part of a studying abroad program of Centre College. Spencer, who will be a senior at Centre in the fall, was at the Strasbourg campus and traveling through Europe. He is pictured here at Mont Sainte-Odile. Upon his return, he is working with Northwestern Mutual.

Bryan & Suzanne

Bryan and Suzanne [Marlene Adams] Johnson spent five days in the Dominican Republic at the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino in February. They had a great time and enjoyed relaxing and the warm weather. For spring break, Dylan, Bryan, and Suzanne went to Tennessee for a few days with some friends while Ashley went on a cruise with a couple of her friends. Brittany was on the honor roll at Big Walnut High School in Sunbury, Ohio, this year. Her biggest summer project is convincing her dad, Jeff, to buy her a car since she gets her driver's license in June.

Lisa, Margaret, Sydney, Shelley, & Taylour

Taylour Hone [Margaret Rader] enjoyed her 14th birthday as her Aunt Lisa piloted a pontoon boat on the Tennessee River for Taylour and her friends. She starts high school this fall at Bob Jones High School in Madison, Alabama. Taylour enjoys the company of (l-r) Lisa Rader, Margaret Rader, Sydney Hone, and Shelley Rader during her birthday weekend.
